Balmy Weather Ushers In Marin Art, Garden Fair

The Marin Art and Garden Fair, favored with a balmy summer evening, opened to a crowd of more than 3,000 persons last night in a flag-bedecked setting in Ross.

The theme of the fair, "Summertime 1900," came to life as men in shirtsleeves and ladies in summer dresses strolled beneath gas lights past the gazebos and garden gates.

Crowds admired the gardens, viewed the art-in-action demonstrations, strolled through Main Street 1900 where the commercial items are on display, and witnessed a fashion show.

Hundreds more poured onto the Marin Art and Garden Center fairgrounds this morning. The fair will continue from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily through Monday, with shuttle bus service from Bolinas Avenue in San Anselmo and from College of Marin because of limited parking near the fairgrounds.

There will be a ballroom dancing exhibition at 5 p.m. today on the Northgate stage, featuring Bari Frohlich's Junior Cotillion, and square dancers on the ampitheater stage at 7:30 p.m.

The Barbershoppers, featuring Kenny Burt and his family banjo orchestra, will present a variety show on the Northgate stage at 8:30 p.m.

In yesterday's judging, the best of show award for overall excellence in the professional garden category was given to Cottage Nursery of Vallejo, which had the top display in the summerhouse division.

Other best of show awards were given to West End Nursery, San Rafael, for best construction; Lewelling Florest, San Lorenzo, for best plant material, and Mrs. George Hall Jr. for her flower arrangement based on the theme, "Little Brown Jug."

Bette Klopf's oil painting, "Whistle Stop," was named best in show in the art category.

Among the eye-catchers at the fair are two antique lamp posts which were used in San Rafael during the gaslight era, and an antique Ford car that looks as sturdy as the day it was built.

One of the unusual exhibits is that of "painting in stone" by the Marin Mineral Society.

The fair entertainment tomorrow will start with Poogie-Poogie the clown at 11 a.m. The Un-Called Four barbershop quartet will sing at 12:30 p.m., the Terra Linda High School Band will present a concert at 1 p.m. and there will be a 1900s fashion show at 2:30 p.m.

ODDS FAVORING KUCHEL AS GOVERNOR NOMINEE

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

That's the inside word from his secretary Stephen Horn.

GOP colleagues of Kuchel are being told by Horn that the senator is now "strongly inclined" to enter the gubernatorial primary. This is attributed to two factors:

A series of private polls that reportedly show Kuchel as the leading Republican prospect; and insistent demands by close friends and supporters that he run. According to Horn, they are urging that on the ground, "Kuchel is the only Republican who can win, and he has to win in order to save the Republican Party."

For months Kuchel has kept both Washington and California political circles buzzing with varying reports about his seeking the GOP gubernatorial nomination. This latest report, attributed to Horn, is the most positive so far.

Land, Property Assessments Jump 51.6 Million; 14.9 Per Cent Increase

Projected Tax Rate Can Drop To $2.20

Assessment of land and property in Marin has jumped a whopping 51.6 million dollars over last fiscal year, an increase of 14.9 per cent, on the fiscal 1966 assessment roll released by County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel today.

In dollar value, it is the biggest increase on record for the County of Marin. It means the projected county tax rate can drop to $2.20 per $100 of assessed valuation.

Drops in tax rates of cities, schools and other districts will be up to the governing boards.

Biggest increases came in areas where the assessor's men have re-evaluated property.

Assessment in the Reed Union School District, which includes both Tiburon and Belvedere, went up from 24.2 million dollars to 36.3 million dollars, a jump of 49.5 per cent.

In the Mill Valley School District, embracing another area of re-evaluation, the total went from 40.3 million dollars to 52.7 million dollars, an increase of 30.8 per cent.

BIGGER RAISE

Adjustments of rural land valuations caused even bigger percentage increases in some areas.

Nicasio School District assessment rose from 1.07 million dollars to 1.67 million dollars, an increase of 55.9 per cent. Tomales Bay Union School District increased 29.7 per cent.

The figures released today do not include property owned by public utilities. These are assessed by the state and will not be fixed until about mid-August. Broemmel estimated that the utility roll total will be $33,500,000, up only slightly from last year's $32,381,000.

TAX RATE

County Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell predicted that the current county tax rate of $2.30 will drop 10 cents at least. The tax rate for the county library, instead of going from 15 cents to 16 cents will only go to 15.5 cents, he predicted.

SUBS WRITER IN MARIN

Navy Commander 'Russian' Author

By JEFF GREER

'RUSSIAN' AUTHOR — Cmdr. John A. Davis Jr., who wrote a book under a Russian pen name that set off a tizzy in the Pentagon, reads to his daughter Dareen, 8, from a less controversial volume — "The Old Woman And Her Pig." Davis disclosed he has resigned from the Navy and received an appointment from President Johnson to head a civilian study of U.S. protection against enemy submarines. (Independent-Journal photo)

A much-decorated submarine officer visiting in San Rafael today confirmed that he is "Aleksander I. Zhdanov," who wrote a book that gave the Pentagon the jitters because it disclosed perilous chinks in United States defenses against Soviet undersea weapons.

"Zhdanov" is really Cmdr. John A. Davis, 42, who has retired from the Navy—and given up the captain's stripes for which he became eligible yesterday—to carry on his battle for American preparedness as a civilian.

STARTLES NATION

In 1963, "Zhdanov's" book "Shadow of Peril" was published by Doubleday and Co. and received startled attention nationwide. Then, charges Davis, "pressure" was brought by the Pentagon, and the stir created was smoothed over.

"Shadow of Peril" is a supposedly fictional work "by" a Soviet submarine skipper who has defected to the West and who spills how easily the Russians can attack the United States from below the sea. The book, written before the Cuba confrontation but not published until later, proved amazingly accurate, Davis points out.

TOP EXPERT

Davis said he hid behind the Russian pen-name because as a Navy officer, he would have required Navy clearance if he wrote under his own name. He said pro-airpower, anti-ship officials would never have let the manuscript off their desks.

Ironically, the book's publishers, who did not know their own author's true name, selected Davis as the top expert in the field, and sent the manuscript to him for checking, he said today.

He says he knows his goals for the nation will be easier to chieve as a a civilian.

He has evidence of this: President Lyndon B. Johnson has appointed him chairman of a board of civilian scientist experts to evaluate the efficiency of U.S. anti-submarine warfare efforts. Davis also will work in New York as assistant to the president of Grace Steamship Lines, he said.

Until this week, Davis was in charge of submarine tactical development in the Pacific Fleet at Pearl Harbor. He also taught the skippers of new nuclear-powered subs the fine details of their trade. He has co-authored numerous articles on submarines, particularly the "Thresher" class, as well as on oceanography.

Actually, he said, none of the material in his controversial book was secret—it had all been in public print, but ignored.

Part of the reason he quit the Navy, Davis said, is his continuing concern over bad conditions which cause officers and enlisted men to throw over careers and tremendously expansive training, in favor of civilian life. He said he persuaded Navy officials to encourage men to write their gripes directly to the Pentagon, in an attempt to stem the high turnover.

Another problem the military

Dien Bien Phu Is Blasted By U.S. Jets

SAIGON (UPI) — U.S. planes today carried out two bombing attacks on the historic fortress of Dien Bien Phu where France lost the battle of Indochina 11 years ago. In ground fighting Vietnamese troops killed 120 Viet Cong in a series of significant victories.

Other planes struck the Nam Dinh oil depot 40 miles southeast of the North Viet Nam capital of Hanoi, the closest they have come to the Communist capial. The 30 minute attack left the area in "high flames," smoke towering 12,000 feet in the air.

During the night Viet Cong guerrillas attacked two U.S. airstrips with mortar fire. Eight helicopters were damaged and a U.S. enlisted man was wounded. The heaviest attack came at Soc Trang, 90 miles southwest of Saigon, where seven helicopters were hit. One heli-

Singer Called Cause Of Fire

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Western singer Johnny Cash was one of three men responsible for starting the 700-acre Los Padres National Forest fire this week, the U. S. Forest Service said today.

Named with Cash, of Casitas Springs, were Damon Felder and Jim Hyatt, both of Oakview. No charges are being contemplated at this time, the Forest Service indicated.

The Forest Service said the three men were in the area fishing when their pickup truck became stuck in the sand. In the process of getting it free, the truck exhaust apparently ignited surrounding grass and brush. The fire was contained Monday night.

San Rafael Hikes City Employee Pay

Some of the raises were step increases of 5 to 10 per cent. Some were 2.5 per cent cost of living adjustments. Some included both.

City Finance Director Orrin Wendling was instructed to compute the salary hikes' total effect on the budget and report it to the council at its meeting next Tuesday evening. The council will meet half an hour early, at 7:30 p.m., to decide on raises for department heads.

City Mgr. Dan E. Anderson had predicted earlier that a flat cost of living increase for all employees would cost about $35,000.

All firemen and police patrolmen were given one-step (5 per cent) raises, making the pay range for the job $571 to $670 per month, with corresponding raises to higher positions, after Fire Chief Vance Trivett argued that other cities were paying more than San Rafael, and "we are the top city in Marin County—we should have the best employees."

"I don't know how we're going to pay for it, but I'd not hesitate to recommend $670," said Andersen. He had earlier proposed only the cost of living boost, with no step increase for firemen and police patrolmen. That would have brought the top pay for the post to $654 a month.

Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa went along with Trivett, although he had earlier asked both a one-step raise plus the cost of living boost, for a total of 7.5 per cent. The city traditionally has kept the two departments equal in pay.

The evening's longest debate involved Public Works Director Norris M. Rawles' men in the engineering and street maintenance sections. Rawles, citing competition from other cities, urged raising the junior engineer scale from $579 to $704 per month, and cited San Anselmo's offer of $584 to $710 for the same position. Andersen had recommended a one-step increase from $551 to $670, and suggested Rawles could get permission to hire a new but experienced man above the first step.

Councilman Fred Jensen argued that the city should lop off the two beginning steps of the

No Talks Seen In Painter Strike Until Weekend Over

The strike of 8,000 Bay Area painters, including 450 in Marin County, went into its second day today, with a union official predicting there will be no more settlement talks until Tuesday.

Strikes by sheet metal workers and plumbers also continued to plague the construction industry in parts of the Bay Area, but one threatened walkout—by 35,000 members of the Northern California District Council of Laborers—was avoided by a settlement.

Only Marin County painters who were working today were employees of about 20 firms which had signed individual interim agreements with Painters Local 83. Officials of the local continued to talk to building firms today in an effort to boost this number.

Harry Bigarani, secretary of Painters District Council 8, said there were no talks yesterday between the council and the Painting and Decorating Contractors Assn. He predicted none will be scheduled until after the long Fourth of July weekend.

Yesterday, the Northern California District Council of Laborers signed three-year agreements with the Northern California Home Builders Conferenceand the Associated General Contractors. They will get in-

Fine Weather For Weekend

Expect fine weather for the Glorious Fourth weekend.

That's the cheerful word from the Weather Bureau, which predicts fair weather in the state through Wednesday.

Rain is unlikely anywhere except for the possibility of afternoon thundershowers in the Sierra. There will be some overcast near the ocean.

High temperature in San Rafael yesterday was 81.

FOURTH HOLIDAY; FIFTH IS DAY OFF

Because the national holiday falls on Sunday all government offices, banks and most businesses will be closed on Monday. Parking meters will not be checked anywhere in the county but Sausalito.

The Independent-Journal will publish as usual.

Legislature Agrees To Delay Adjournment

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The legislature broke its great adjournment deadlock today with an agreement to delay the end of the special session until Tuesday.

Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, D-Los Angeles, announced an agreement to a half-filled lower house, which had been waiting for a solution to an almost unprecedented conflict.

Jazz Fete Starts; Trouble Free

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—The Newport Jazz Festival, protected by National Guardsmen on standby alert, blew into the second swinging round of its 12th season today.

Gov. John H. Chafee said an "adequate" number of guardsmen were on alert to prevent any repetition of the 1960 riots.

All went smoothly, if not quietly, last night with a folk singing program featuring Muddy Waters, Pete Seeger, Memphis Slim and blues singer Joe Williams. Trumpeter Dizzy Gillespie also performed.

A gathering of 3,500 sprinkled through the 12,000-seat arena for the opening round. Producer George T. Wein said he wasn't worried about the financial outcome of the four-day festival.

Frank Sinatra is scheduled to sing Sunday.

Newport is geared for the jazz buffs, but the welcome mat is not out for those who have bunked for free on the public beaches in the past.

New Algerian Regime Seen As Anti-Red

ALGIERS (AP) — The new Algerian regime, in the opinion of Western diplomats here, is moving toward a more neutral position in world affairs coupled with an anti-Communist policy at home.

This can have a wide effect on political relations among the nations of the African-Asian community.

It can lead many nations to take a new look at the "second Bandung" summit, now scheduled for Nov. 5.

Cherif Belkacem, minister of education and information in the new regime, served notice of the switch in domestic policy in an interview with the official newspaper.

Belkacem put it this way:

"We have known strange professors who, incapable of achieving the revolution in their own countries, pretend to be doing it here, according to plans which have nothing to do with Algeria.

"We have put them aside. We do not want them as guides. They are free to go where they wish, but not to indoctrinate our youth."

Col. Houari Boumedienne's regime has expelled a number of French, Chinese and Egyptian Communists who acted as advisers to deposed President Ahmed Ben Bella.

Two correspondents of the Paris Communist paper L'Humanite also have been expelled.

On the other hand, Fidel Castro in Cuba and Sekou Toure in Guinea have issued statements attacking Boumedienne. Castro called Boumedienne a "military despot, a rightist, a reactionary, and an enemy of socialism and the Algerian revolution."

Toure praised Ben Bella and said he hoped Algerians will avoid a "Congolization" of their country.

The chairman of the Marin County Parks and Recreation Commission is Gibbs H. Lawson.

Wild Storm Drain Rides At An End For Youths

SANTA MONICA (AP) — "When you hit this big bend you can't help yelling and screaming," says Gary McDonald, 18, as he describes what for several nights was the goingest teen-age rage in town.

It seems the kids would gather on a hilltop, then one at a time hurl themselves belly-down on wheels into the open end of a half-mile long storm drain and hurtle underground to the beach below.

"Well, when the folks around here heard all these yells coming up through their sinks and toilets, they called police to see what the heck was going on," McDonald said.

Sheriff's deputies said this was what going on:

The kids would climb 25 feet down a ladder into the 6-foot diameter pipe, carrying what they called "flexies," described by deputies as sleds with wheels, steering apparatus, and brakes. Then, carrying flashlights, they'd begin their wild rides.

"At high tide you got wet," said another youth, who declined to be identified. "A couple of kids came down here the other night just as a big wave hit the pipe. It's a wild ride."

Not any more, it isn't.

Deputies called to the scene Tuesday night spent the next day filling the hole with boulders.

The chairman of the Marin County Human Rights Commission is James Quiett and Wyman Hicks is the executive secretary.

Resort Town Seeks Ouster Of 'Beatniks'

PROVINCETOWN, Mass. (AP)—There may not be a legal definition of a beatnik, but residents of this resort town on the tip of Cape Cod have no trouble finding words to describe the type.

The problem of a legal definition arose after residents submitted a "ban the beatniks" petition to town officials.

"Everyone knows you can't ban beatniks," said Town Clerk William McCaffrey, "unless they break the law. Besides, what is a beatnik?"

Town selectment tabled the petition on the ground that there is no legal definition of beatnik.

The petition was the townspeople's response to a growing influx each summer of persons they label "beat."

Evelyn Bent of the weekly Provincetown Advocate says the beatnik migration increases in size each summer.

"This crowd," she says, "comes down with practically nothing and manages to survive without working or bathing."

Provincetown has become the "summer village," she says, for many inhabitants of New York's Greenwich Village. Others say the beatniks come from Boston.

McCaffrey says there aren't many beatniks compared to the thousands of paying tourists who swell the summer population, "but in a little town like this, when it gets congested, and with the narrow streets, if you see the same goon 15 times in one day, you go away with the impression the town is full of them."

Dominican Junta Position Changes

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — New statements by two leaders of the Dominican junta appeared today to open the door to a settlement of the stalemate in the Caribbean trouble spot.

Gen. Antonio Imbert Barreras, junta president, said last night that the most difficult part of his task was completed and he would step down when the Dominican people were assured of safety from communism, anarchy and despotism.

Communism, Imbert said in a televised speech, had been confined to just one sector of Santo Domingo. He meant the rebel sector.

The remaining task, he said, could be done by any "well intentioned Dominican."

Imbert said any attempt by the Organization of American States to impose a provisional government would be a "gross act of intervention."

But he said he would not be an obstacle to a peaceful solution of the crisis touched off by the rebellion April 24. Previously Imbert had said he would step down only after an elected government took office.

Peace prospects got a further boost Thursday night when the armed forces secretary, Commodore Francisco J. Rivera Caminero, told a newsman the armed forces would support any democratic solution put forward by the OAS.

HORSES USE METERS WHILE GIRLS SHOP

Judi Burr and Betsy Aunapu, both 14, tied their horses to parking meters across from Mill Valley's city hall shortly before noon today, dropped pennies in the meters and disappeared.

Soon the two Mill Valley girls returned with two tall bags of groceries containing a dozen doughnuts, potato chips, corn curls, soft drinks, gum "and stuff," which they repacked on their horses' backs. Betsy said they were going over the mountain to Lake Lagunitas.

While the girls were in the store a woman drove up in a long car, stopped parallel to the horses, shook her head and said, "Only in Mill Valley!"

copter was hit at Cheo Reo, 200 miles northeast of Saigon.

The strike at Soc Trang was a bold followup to yesterday's raid against Da Nang air base where a U.S. soldier was killed and $5 million worth of planes were destroyed. This time American fliers, some barefoot and others clad only in their shorts, flew the remaining helicopters to safety.

Dien Bien Phu is the symbol of Communist success in Indochina. But more important it marks the start of the Ho Chi Minh trail, the jungle screened pathways that wind through Laos into South Viet Nam and that have been a major supply route for the Viet Cong. Dien Bien Phu is almost on the border of Laos.

In the two raids against the fortress 184 miles west of Hanoi, 30 U.S. Air Force planes struck with 58 tons of bombs, missiles and rockets, destroying 18 buildings including six barracks. The airstrip was cratered.

The most significant government victory in the ground victory came in a search and destroy operation four miles east of the ancient imperial capital of Hue about 75 miles north of Da Nang. A spokesman said the Vietnamese killed 92 Viet Cong and captured eight at a cost of seven killed and six wounded.

A U.S. military spokesman said the Viet Cong used 81 millimeter mortar shells in the raid at Soc Trang, 90 miles southwest of Saigon, but did not attempt to penetrate the inner defenses of the important Mekong Delta base.

The undamaged helicopters on the flight line were flown out as a precaution against a full-scale Communist attack. It never developed, and the helicopters returned to the base early today.

creases of 55 cents in hourly wages and 50 cents in fringe benefits over three years.

Formerly making $145 for a 40-hour week, plus $16 in fringe benefits, laborers will get $167 plus $36 in benefits within three years.

The painters have not been picketing, but are following a "no contract, no work" policy.

Other strikes were those of 1,000 plumbers in Alameda County, and of sheet-metal workers in San Francisco and San Mateo counties, Cement Masons have been on strike nearly two weeks, while Bay Area construction teamsters have been off the job since Tuesday.

Machinists have threatened to strike at all private shipyards on the Pacific Coast. Further talks with the West Coast Shipbuilders Assn. were scheduled today.

Telephone Cable Cut By Workers

Workers felling trees at the new Bank of Marin site on San Rafael's Fifth Avenue cut through a six-pair telephone cable about 3 p.m. yesterday and briefly interrupted service to St. Raphael's Church.

Richard H. Roach, acting San Rafael manager of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., said service was restored a few minutes after the cable was broken.

Streetcar Crash

BERLIN (AP) — A streetcar crashed into another one that had stopped to discharge passengers today during the morning rush hour. Police said 30 persons—most of them school children—were hurt but the injuries were not serious.

Pool To Be Open

The Terra Linda High School pool will be open for recreational swimming from 1 to 5 p.m. tomorrow, Sunday and Monday, according to Ronald Koeler of the San Rafael Recreation Department.

Runaway Girl Leads Police In Car Chase

A 17-year-old runaway Novato girl, driving her parents' car, led a Fairfax policeman on a high-speed chase yesterday through downtown Fairfax and up narrow, winding Cascade Drive—just missing children in the street—until he ran her off the road at 470 Cascade.

Claudia Stell Hernandez of 1333 Cambridge Street was booked at Juvenile Hall as a runaway and on charges of reckless driving and attempting to evade arrest. She had been missing from her home since 9:30 p.m. Tuesday when she left to take some friends to their homes.

San Anselmo police spotted her car yesterday afternoon and radioed Fairfax to watch for her. She passed Fairfax Patrolman Richard Morin on Pacheco Avenue at high speed, turned east onto Mono Avenue, then onto Inyo Avenue. Morin gave chase with red light flashing and siren on. The girl turned onto Pacheco again, with rear tires sliding, then onto Broadway, failing to halt at a stop sign, at about 50 miles per hour, Morin reported. She turned left at Bolinas Road, the car again sliding to the right, and accelerated with Morin still in pursuit, siren sounding loudly.

The chase continued to Cascades Drive at speeds up to 70 miles per hour with the girl's car on the left side of the road. She forced an oncoming car off Cascade and children on the road—which has no sidewalks—scattered in all directions, Morin reported.

Claudia told police she had been sleeping in the car and riding around. When she got to San Rafael yesterday she saw her brother, Robert, with a friend in a pickup truck. They spotted her and began to chase her. She panicked when she saw him, she said.

Robert went to the Fairfax police station to report he had just seen his sister, and was himself arrested on a non-support warrant from Novato.

faces, Davis charges, is lack of fast-thinking political decisions in military emergencies such as Viet Nam and the Berlin Wall.

"We have some doves in the State Department," he charged.

Davis, who is visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. Arthur Barr of 135 Eye Street, will leave for New York Monday, to rejoin his wife, the former Agnes Barr of San Rafael, who is in Europe with their oldest son, Jay, 11. He was traced to San Rafael by the Associated Press.

He was accompanied on the visit by his two daughters, Dareen, 8, and Heidi, 3, and son Arthur, 5.

Death Row Number Gains

The number of prisoners on San Quentin State Prison's condemned row went up to 49 yesterday, but went back down to 48 again today when Richard Marcellus Davis, 23, left to San Diego County for a new trial.

Davis won his plea for a new trial due to the Supreme Court ruling in Escobedo vs. Illinois in 1963, holding an accused man's rights had been violated when he was interrogated without the presence of his counsel. Davis was convicted of first degree murder and sent to San Quentin on Sept. 19, 1963.

Newest arrival to condemned row is Edmund Earl Reeves, 26, of Oildale, Kern County. Reeves was convicted of the March 4 murder of oil worker Floyd Parsons, 49, at an oil pump north of Bakersfield.

School Job Not Deleted After All

There will be no deletion of a position in the Marin County superintendent of schools' office after all, county administrator Alan Bruce said today.

Wednesday, after two meetings with schools supt. Virgil S. Hollis, Bruce said the position of director of business service would be deleted.

Yesterday, however, Hollis told Bruce that was not his understanding of the discussion.

Hollis was not available today. Asst. supt. Robert Stannard said Mr. Hollis said he wanted no statement from the office on the subject until the county board of education meets Tuesday.

Bruce suggested eliminating the office as an economy move after the resignation of George L. Emmons. On learning that Hollis did not plan to delete any position, Bruce said he will not recommend any change in the present staff set-up.

PAY

range, impose a year's probation, and then grant merit raises, without necessarily raising the top salary.

Andersen said he had considered such a proposal, plus additional longevity pay—a new concept to the city—but was not prepared to recommend them immediately. The council finally agreed to preserve the range setup, and voted unanimously to give Rawles the two-step raise he sought for junior engineers.

Although Jensen objected that Andersen's recommendations for street maintenance personnel would mean a $312 spread between top and bottom posts, the council finally unanimously accepted Andersen's proposals to raise the maintenance superintendent 7.5 per cent to the $705-$856 range; foreman to $538-$654, and equipment operators, sweeper operators and sewer maintenance crew to $476-$579. "Maintenance man II" were raised to $453-$551, as were gardeners. Maintenance men I and groundsmen in the recreation department will get $431-$525.

Decision on Planning Director George H. Rodgers' request for a new associate planner was postponed after Councilman Harry A. Barbier moved its approval but agreed to wait until Councilman Louis H. Barr could be present.

The meeting opened with only Mayor C. Paul Bettini, Jensen and Barbier present. Councilman Charles W. Aby arrived five minutes before adjournment, but expressed approval of all the evening's decisions.

The audience consisted only of department heads and Patrolman Gerald R. Souza, president of the city employees association.

Souza said his group represented 150 of the city's 190 employees, and that it favored the salary recommendations proposed by Andersen or the department heads, except for the police and fire departments. The association, he said, would also like 20 working days' vacation after 10 years on the job, and accrual of sick leave up to 90 days, with additional "disaster reserve" above that.

He also challenged the city's recent hiring of temporary employees at higher pay than permanent scales for the same duties.

"If the justification is that we can't get any more help, why don't we get more pay?" he asked.

Barbier and Bettini objected that temporary help always has to be paid more. Jensen and Andersen cited fringe benefits which the temporary workers do not get.

Fine, Jail Given In Driving Case

James Joseph Lynch, 31, Oakland, was fined $276, sentenced to five days in Marin County jail, and placed on two years supervised probation yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving.

Lynch, arrested March 10 on Highway 101 by California Highway Patrol, had a prior conviction.

Scared Away

A would-be-auto thief apparently was scared away after prying open the top of an MG convertible and breaking an inside door handle, San Rafael police said today. The 1965 sports car belongs to Margie Webster, 95 Meadow Avenue, who reported the damage at 9 a.m. today.

Assessments Show Biggest Increase

ment roll expected to be made by the county board of supervisors when it begins sitting as a board of equalization next week.

Last year, Mitchell noted, the board reduced the roll by about half a million dollars during the hearings. His predictions on the coming county tax rate are based on a total reduction of $800,000.

Broemmel's covering letter on the tax roll notes that assessed value in incorporated areas represents a greater share of the total than last year, going from 62.2 per cent to 65.8 per cent. This is due mainly to the incorporation of Tiburon.

The assessment on land has also increased in proportion to the total. In fiscal 1960, land alone was 33.4 per cent of the total assessment, with improvements and personal property making up the rest. In the roll for fiscal 1966, land is 40.8 per cent of the total assessment.

Asst. Assessor Herschel Johnson said this is due to a transition in values, with more and more of the rural land taking on urban prices.

The assessed value is 23 per cent of the "fair market value" of the property. This percentage is set by state law.

The percentage of exemption in relation to the total assessment roll has dropped from 7.4 in fiscal 1960 to 4 per cent in the fiscal 1966 roll. Exemptions allowed for churches and welfare institutions and veterans will total $16.4 million on the new roll.

The number of veterans qualifying for exemptions dropped from 6,739 last year to 6,060 for fiscal 1966.

In accounting for the 14.9 per cent increase, Broemmel said that it fell mainly on these areas:

Mill Valley School District, a 12.4 million dollar increase or 24 per cent of the increase in the total roll; Reed School District, a 12 million dollar increase, or a 23 per cent share of the roll's increase; San Rafael, 8.4 million, or 17 per cent of the total share; Novato, 7.3 million or 14 per cent of the share; Larkspur, 5 million dollars, or 10 per cent of the share, and other areas, 6.2 million dollars or 12 per cent of the increase.

The assessment of personal property was done under a slightly different formula this year, Johnson said. Nothing under $100 value was assessed. In prior years it was nothing under $20.

Reason for the increased minimum was that the bookkeeping involved for the small valuations was not justified in terms of tax revenue, Johnson said.

The new formula meant that the unsecured total came in a little lower than predicted and in one case, in the town of Ross, it meant a slight drop in the total assessment.

Last year's total for Ross was $6,907,090. The new total will be $6,898,160, a drop of .1 of one per cent.

Figures for other cities with last year's total, the total for fiscal 1966 and the percentage increase are:

Belvedere, $8,000,030 to $11,694,510, up 46.2 per cent.

Corte Madera, $14,082,150 to $17,971,820, up 27.6 per cent.

Fairfax, $9,551,400 to $9,696,260, up 1.5 per cent.

Larkspur, $13,660,210 to $16,420,370, up 20.2 per cent.

Novato, $28,104,990 to $32,366,530, up 15.2 per cent.

San Anselmo, $19,370,200 to $19,542,320, up .9 of one per cent.

San Rafael, $73,693,830 to $81,587,235, up 10.7 per cent.

Sausalito, $21,995,850 to $22,118,570, up .6 of one per cent.

Since the city of Tiburon was not incorporated until June of 1964, there is no comparison for it. Tiburon assessment for fiscal 1966 is set at $15,168,340.

American Valley Joint, $156,600 to $169,730, up 8.4 per cent.

Bolinas Stinson Union, $5,522,520 to $5,724,010, up 3.6 per cent.

Dixie, $27,663,640 to $32,111,820, up 16.1 per cent.

Fairfax, $11,354,470 to $11,581,920, up 2 per cent.

Kentfield, $22,834,950 to $24,982,985, up 9.4 per cent.

Lincoln, $905,160 to $1,141,490, up 26.1 per cent.

Mill Valley, $40,367,120 to $52,797,370, up 30.8 per cent.

Nicasio, $1,075,404 to $1,676,310, up 55.9 per cent.

Point Reyes, $347,650 to $480,300, up 38.2 per cent.

Reed, $24,292,780 to $36,309,410, up 49.5 per cent.

Ross, $8,100,250 to $8,049,410, down .6 of one per cent.

San Rafael, $78,204,530 to $82,198,715, up 5.1 per cent.

Sausalito, $25,297,120 to $25,742,490, up 1.8 per cent.

Tomales Bay, $3,093,870 to $4,013,760, up 29.7 per cent.

Union Joint, $274,150 to $299,490, up 9.2 per cent.

West Marin, $6,511,000 to $7,417,650, up 13.9 per cent.

Novato Unified School District, (including the former San Jose District) from $40,561,440 to $47,946,660, a gain of 18.2 per cent.

(In the three joint school districts, the figures apply to the portion in Marin County only; joint school districts overlap county lines.)

Petaluma Joint (the portion in Marin), $1,975,130 to $2,365,160, up 19.7 per cent.

San Rafael, $105,858,170 to $114,310,535, up 8 per cent.

Tamalpais, $186,875,650 to $220,300,275, up 17.9 per cent.

Tomales (portion in Marin County), $10,109,120 to $12,081,440, up 19.5 per cent.

Body In Bay Is Sergeant

A body found in San Pablo Bay has been positively identified as that of T/Sgt. James T. Gayton, 38, of 363 Bolling Drive, Hamilton Air Force Base.

Gayton's body was recovered Tuesday from the bay near Rodeo and taken to the Wilson and Kratzer Mortuary, Richmond.

His car was found stopped on the San Rafael-Richmond Bridge June 7 after a bridge painter heard a splash and saw a khaki-clad body floating in the water.

Identification was made through checking Gayton's Air Force medical and dental records.

Fireman Is Injured Chasing Fire Truck

San Anselmo fireman Dave Pardee apparently suffered a broken leg about 1 p.m. today when he attempted to stop a small runaway fire truck on Ancho Vista Avenue.

The driverless truck rolled down the hill and Pardee bounced off when he tried to halt it, according to reports. The truck went through a yard and turned upside down on a grade, landing in a front yard on Ancho Vista. There was no structural damage to the house.

Injured Motorcycle Driver 'Serious'

Neal Kirk, 45, of 23 Venetia Meadow, Santa Venetia, was listed in serious condition today at Hillcrest Hospital, Petaluma, where he has been under treatment since his left foot and lower leg were cut off in a Petaluma traffic crash Tuesday.

Luci Johnson Is Baptized A Catholic

WASHINGTON (AP) — Luci Baines Johnson, daughter of President and Mrs. Johnson, was baptized into the Roman Catholic Church today—her 18th birthday.

With the President, her mother and sister, Lynda, present, a small private baptismal service was held at 2 p.m. in St. Matthew's cathedral, a few blocks from the White House.

The announcement came from the White House. Since last September, Luci has been taking instructions in the Catholic faith from Father James Montgomery, assistant director of Catholic charities of the Archdiocese of Washington.

The Johnsons are of varying religious affiliations. The President belongs to the Christian Church, Mrs. Johnson and Lynda to the Episcopal faith. Luci formerly was an Episcopalian—she was graduated recently from the National Cathedral School for Girls, an Episcopal institution.

But this fall she is entering Georgetown University, a Catholic institution, to study to become a nurse.

Chamber Names New Chairmen

They are: Charles Johnson, airport; Paul Fry, education; Victor A. Barossi, economic development; James Adair, legislative; Philip Westergaard, membership; Henry Puccinelli, trade bureau; Ronald E. Lipe, military affairs; William Siler, publicity; Lief Evensen, by-laws, and Ross Tankersley, annual dinner.

The annual dinner was set for July 31 at the Lodge at 8141 Redwood Highway. The annual reception for new teachers in Novato Unified School District was set for Sept. 8 at the John Novak home at 50 Rica Vista.

Rotary Installs In San Rafael

Daniel C. Davis of Greenbrae was installed last night as president of the San Raafel Rotary Club.

Eugene Crawford, outgoing president, automatically stepped into the office of vice president. Re-elected to their posts were Col. Robert S. Nourse, secretary, and William P. Murray Jr., treasurer.

Irving Chapman and Dr. Stephen E. Epler were installed as directors, while Dr. Edward Boero and Lloyd Chelli remained on the board.

Youth Still Critical After Cycle Mishap

Eight days after he was hit by a car while riding on a motorcycle, Bruce Leggett, 14, of 309 Fourth Street, Sausalito, remained unconscious and in critical condition today at Marin General Hospital.

Mark Corey, 15, of 126 Filbert Street, Sausalito, driver of the motorcycle, was in satisfactory condition. The driver of the auto, Emmett E. Sappington, 69, of 127 Cazneau Street, Sausalito, was reported "doing fairly well" in the hospital.

No Comment On Nuclear Ban Need

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House and State Department have declined to comment on a five-month-old report to President Johnson on the need for an agreement to prevent spread of nuclear weapons.

The New York Times said yesterday that the report recommended priority for such an agreement over the pending proposal to create a nuclear weapons force within the North Atlantic Alliance. The United States and West Germany are the chief backers of such a plan.

LAURISTON H. TARDY
Sudden heart attack

OBITUARIES

Teacher Lauriston Tardy Dies

Lauriston Henry Tardy, 55, head of the English department of Terra Linda High School, died of a heart attack in Berkeley Wednesday, only days before he was to start a year-long sabbatical trip to the South Pacific.

He collapsed at the home of another teacher, Mrs. Ruth M. Rickansrud of Berkeley, after they had attended a morning class at University of California. He was dead on arrival at Kaiser Hospital in Oakland at 12:35 p.m.

A native of Berkeley, he grew up in the Bay Area, receiving a bachelor's degree from U.C. in 1930 and master's degree from Stanford University in 1942. He started teaching at San Rafael High School in 1938 and stayed there until 1956, during which time he acted as a counselor as well as a teacher.

He left teaching in 1956 and joined an insurance firm in 1960. He returned to teaching to head the Terra Linda High School English department when the school opened.

He was author of several textbooks.

This spring, Tardy was granted a year's leave to tour the Pacific basin, from Japan to New Zealand, to do research and carry on independent study.

In his report to the San Rafael Board of Education, Tardy said he planned to tape-record the music of each country as well as learning about its language and literature. He hoped to make use of his findings when he returned to classes in September, 1966.

Tardy's wife, Miriam, died last year.

Surviving are two daughters, Judith, a teacher in Novato, and Jennifer, a June graduate of Terra Linda High School, both of San Rafael, and a son, Dwight Tardy of Seattle.

Tardy was a member of the Marin Unitarian-Universalist Church and of the National Education Assn., California Teachers Assn. and San Rafael Teachers Assn.

Private funeral was held today in Berkeley. Inurnment was in Oakland.

I. W. BONBRIGHT

I. Wayland Bonbright Jr., 62, of San Francisco, formerly of Ross, died in a San Francisco hospital yesterday following surgery.

A native of Colorado Springs, Colo., he moved to Englewood, N.J., as a child and lived there until he came to California about 1946. He was an estate manager from 1923 until his retirement in 1945.

During World War II, he volunteered as an ambulance driver with the American Field Service, which aided the British Eighth Army in North Africa, starting about 1940. He later worked for a short time as a test pilot for Grumman Aviation.

His father, the late Irving W. Bonbright, was founder of the Bonbright Co. on New York's Wall Street, and later joined the Childs Management Co. of 1 Wall Street.

Bonbright lived in Ross from 1953 until early 1964, when he moved to San Francisco.

Surviving are his wife, Melissa Bonbright of San Francisco; a son, I. Wayland Bonbright III of Ross; a daughter, Mrs. Marshall D. Hendrian of Glen Ridge, N.J.; two sisters, Mrs. John H. Thatcher of Englewood, N.J., and Dr. Elizabeth Bonbright of Paris, and six grandchildren.

DEATH CAR—Wreckers get ready to tow away the car of Rep. T. Ashton Thompson which was hit by a tractor-trailer truck yesterday in Gastonai, N.C. The congressman was killed. (AP Wirephoto)

Congressman Struck By Truck, Killed

GASTONIA, N.C. (AP) — Rep. T. Ashton Thompson, D-La., was struck and killed by a truck yesterday as he stood talking with a highway patrolman who had stopped him for allegedly speeding.

Thompson, 49, was taking his family home from Washington for the July 4th weekend. His wife and two children, the family maid and the patrolman escaped serious injury. The truck driver was hospitalized for possible back injuries.

Police said the congressman and Patrolman J.C. Goodwin were standing between their cars when the truck, driven by Norman Turner, 53, of Westville, N.J., apparently sideswiped the patrol car and slammed into the left rear of Thomson's 1965 Cadillac.

Thompson was thrown 18 feet and killed instantly. The truck continued for 264 feet down Interstate 85 before overturning. It was carrying egg crates and barrels of liquid soap.

Mrs. Thompson, 36, Christine Lea Thompson, 10, Ted Arthur Thompson, 7, and the maid, Evelina Poullard, 52, had remained in the car. They were flown to their Ville Platte, La., home today in the plane of Louisiana Gov. John McKeithen.

Waldo's Natural Look Described In Article

The natural restoration of the area bordering Highway 101 on the Waldo Grade is featured pictorially in May-June issue of California Highways and Public Works, the journal of the State Division of Highways.

The cover photo in color shows the hills north of the Golden Gate Bridge with the highway bordered by greenery.

In contrast, the magazine shows Highway 101 on the Waldo Grade 10 years ago when there were extensive cuts and fills to accomplish widening.

"Native shrubs and grasses seeded during construction have now mingled with other natural growth to provide greenery which unifies engineering and aesthetics," the accompanying article says.

The speed limit along the steep grade, which is often buffeted by winds, is now 55 miles an hour.

The magazine also carries a report on Bay Area freeways by Alan S. Hart, district engineer. He said $137,000 has been allocated for installation of a median barrier along Highway 101 from between the north end of the San Rafael Viaduct and the south end of Corte Madera Creek Bridge.

Design studies are being made for 1.1 miles of landscaping along Highway 101 south and north of Corte Madera Creek, Hart said.

Studies also are under way for replacement of Stemple Creek Bridge along Route 1 and for drainage improvements between Stinson Beach and Marshall.

Landscaping and construction of restroom facilities at Vista Point, at the north end of the Golden Gate Bridge, will be completed soon, Hart said.

Studies for the west side parking lot and a freeway connection there are suspended until Golden Gate Bridge expansion plans are clarified, he said.

Johnson Backed On Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (AP)—House Republican Leader Gerald Ford says his party "will be guided by the national interest" in its stand on Viet Nam.

"Republicans will continue to disregard partisan considerations in foreign policy," he said, contending that "some Democrats would abandon the free people of Viet Nam.

"The President must not yield to them," Ford said at a news conference.

Men Take Back Seat At College Summer Session

When it comes to attending summer credit classes at the College of Marin, women outnumber the men.

Credit class enrollment for the college's summer session has reached 1,351, with women outnumbering the men 772 to 579, according to Roy G. Mikalson, dean of adult education.

Mikalson reported to the Marin Junior College District Board Wednesday that credit class enrollment is 30 per cent higher than last summer.

While 562 of the students are from the College of Marin, the majority are from other areas including other colleges, 1965 high school graduates and high school students, Mikalson reported.

High School To Relocate Sewer Line

The Tomales High School District board last night approved plans for relocation of the school's sewage disposal system and called for bids to be opened at 8 p.m. July 22. The meeting that night, the next for the board, will start at 7:30 p.m. at the high school.

The board had been scheduled to open bids July 15 for its rehabilitation project for its main building and shop, but a delay in the architect's plans will postpone this until 8 p.m. July 29.

The board asked Supt. Anthony Matulich to present at the July 22 meeting information on portable classrooms, which the board intends to utilize during the next school year.

Caroline Byrd of St. Simon's Island, Ga., was hired as an English teacher.

Mrs. Jean A. Adams and Mrs. N. Louise Passalacqua took their seats on the board at yesterday's meeting. Mrs. Passalacqua was elected vice-chairman and Mrs. Adams trustee representative. Roy A. Parks was elected chairman of the board, and Richard Velloza, clerk.

Girl's Finger Broken In Door

Molly, 2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Hennessey, waited while firemen removed bolts from the car, an operation which took 15 minutes.

She was treated for a fracture of her little finger at Marin General Hospital. Her hand had been caught below the knuckles, firemen said.

Boy Escapes Injury In Street Accident

Dan Carrick, 6, of 10 Walsh Lane, Fairfax, apparently escaped unhurt when hit by a slow-moving car on Bolinas Road in Fairfax at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Fairfax police said Dan darted from behind a parked auto and was hit by a northbound car driven by Carl L. Adler, 54, of Forest Knolls. The boy was examined at San Rafael General Hospital and returned home.

DRAMA REVIEW

Mock Minstrel Has Great Fiery Pace

By KARL BARRON

Subtitled "Civil Rights in A Cracker Barrel," the San Francisco Mime Troupe's new production lights crackers of the firework variety under the minstrel shows of years gone by. It's fast and gutsy.

"A Minstrel Show" presented by Bill Graham, opened at the Gate Theater in Sausalito last night and is scheduled to play Thursday through Sunday until July 25. Thursday and Sunday performances are at 8: p.m., Friday and Saturday at 8:30.

The show begins in minstrel tradition' six performers in exaggerated blackface makeup, and an interlocutor, ably carried off by Robert Slattery (whose last appearance at the Gate was as Claudius in Hamlet). Their songs are backed by the banjos of Carl Granich and Chuck Wiley.

A couple of traditional minstrel jokes set the scene, but we begin to scent something different in the woodpile as a lecture on Darwin departs from the time-honored minstrel gags, and begins to jab the satirical needle.

Our suspicions are fulfilled when Slattery, after talking a few verses of "Old Black Joe" straight, suddenly lapses into—was it Italian?—operatic style, and brings down the house. From then on, anything goes.

A "history of the Negro," narrated by George Mathews as "Bones," includes such gems as Toussaint's instructions on strategy to his men: "I wants you to go out and kill all them white men," an impersonation of Teddy Roosevelt by Slattery, and George Washington Carver's discovery of peanut oil.

Written by Saul Landau and R. G. Davis, and directed by Davis, the production is sprinkled lightly with four-letter words, which to this reviewer were not offensive, for they are strictly in context.

It also includes a quite explicit, though formalized sexual drama.

A movie filmed by Robert Nelscene that slips over into tense son climaxes the first half of the show — and climactic it is. Beginning as a sort of "Red Balloon" with a watermelon instead of a balloon, and backed by Steve Reich's insistent music, the film (in color) becomes a study in terror.

Using the watermelon throughout, Nelson makes it clear that this is the Negro, smashed, broken, spattering red on pavements, being loved by a half-clad girl, and finally turning on its oppressors. His use of film speedup and quick cuts becomes too much for the eyes at times, and the senses at other times, but this "Mondo Cane" of the watermelon is worth the price of admission alone.

The pace of the whole show is so fast that it really is difficult to tell one from the other, but kudos go to the whole line—Malachi Spicer, Willie B. Hart, Jr., Mathews, Julio Martinez, John Broderick and Jason Marc-Alexander.

next fall. The present performances are for the benefit of SNCC (Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee) and MFDP.

Paddleboard Adventurer Is Off Again

But the water voyage itself is the least of 22-year-old Larry Capune's problems.

His 10-year-old station wagon for the cross-country trip is recovering from an accident. He hasn't enough money for gasoline and he said the used car dealer is hot on his trail for $200 in back payments.

"But I'm sure I'll make it," said Capune.

Capune is the lifeguard who paddled 500 miles from San Francisco to Newport Beach last summer in 22 days.

"I can always hitch a ride to New York if I have trouble with the car," said Capune.

The problem is that he'd have to carry the 18-foot paddleboard that's lashed to the top of his station wagon.

The board, which was donated to him, cost $1,000 and is Capune's most valuable possession by far.

"I've got $87.50 and 180 cans of liquid food," he said. He figures it will cost $95 just for gasoline to get to New York.

Nine Convicted Sit-Iners Fail To Show Up In Court

BERKELEY (AP)—Nine of 15 convicted sit-in demonstrators at the University of California failed to appear in court today to have their cases referred to the probation department for a pre-sentencing report.

Among them were Mario Savio, 22-year-old former philosodefunct Free Speech Movement and his recent bride, FSM leader Suzanne Goldberg.

"They are trying to get a ride back from New York," said defense attorney Henry Elson. "Apparently they haven't sufficient funds."

He said he thought they might be in Berkeley by Tuesday.

Also missing was Stephanie Coontz, 20, who was reported in Ghana visiting her father, a professor at the University of Ghana. Elson said she was expected back in September.

Mona Hutchin, 19, was reported in New York attending an encampment for citizenship, and Wendell C. Brunner, 19, was somewhere in the South working for the Congress of Racial Equality.

Municipal Court Judge Rupert Crittenden ordered preparation of bench warrants for Miss Hutchin, Brunner, and Edward J. Rosenfeld. They will be issued Tuesday if the three do not appear.

Judge Crittenden ordered the cases of the 15 studied by the probation officer before he passes sentence July 19.

Most of the defendants were leaders in the FSM that set off the massive Dec. 2-3 all-night sit-in at the University's administration building.

To date, 632 demonstrators have been found guilty in the mass trials, all of them convicted of trespassing and most of resisting arrest.

Intruders Use Room For Party

Intruders pried a back door, then apparently used the rumpus room of the home of ePter John Caswell, 114 Bretano Way, Greenbrae, for a daytime party, sheriff's officers reported today.

Caswell said he returned home late Wednesday and discovered the break-in. Disorder was evident in the playroom, but nothing was taken, deputies said.

Synanon Asks Use Permit For Expansion

Synanon Foundation today requested a use permit from the county planning commission for expansion of its narcotic addict treatment facilities on the 42-acre Marconi site at Marshall.

The application says the foundation plans addition of two 20-by-30-foot dormitory and recreation buildings.

A court hearing has been set for July 26 on whether Synanon must have a use permit for existing use of the property as a narcotic treatment center.

The county filed abatement proceedings saying that the foundation was operating in violation of the zoning ordinance because it had no permit. Synanon is turn asked the court for declaratory relief and a legal opinion that it did not need a use permit.

The application for the use permit filed today could mean that the court case will be moot, county counsel Douglas J. Maloney said. The planning commission could consider the application as applying to both existing and planned use, Maloney said.

Today's application will be before the planning commission July 19. It will not be heard by the zoning administration because the land is still in "interm D" zoning, not included in the zoning administrator ordinance.

Scrap Leaves Officers Bruised, Cut

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — An early morning scrap in the Greyhound bus depot today left four policemen, a Pinkerton guard and two other men with an assortment of bruises and cuts.

Twenty policemen were called to restore order.

Police reported:

A fight began when the Pinkerton man, Raymond H. Jones, ordered house painter Robert Jones, 36, to leave the depot. Jones refused and knocked the guard to the floor, then took on several policemen when they arrived to arrest him.

An on-looker, James Dowdell, 29, jumped into the melee. Before the pair could be subdued several policemen had been kicked, bitten or slugged.

All were taken to San Francisco General Hospital for treatment.

Tiburon Advisers Hear Comments On Their Report By Planners

The Tiburon citizens planning advisory committee officially ended its duties last night by hearing comments on its reports from professional planners.

Fifty members of the 200-person committee meet with city officials to hear comments from the firm of Williams, Cook and Mocine of San Francisco, the city's planning advisors.

Some of the comments:

Residential — More variety may result if minimum lot sizes range from one-quarter acre to five acres. The consultants do not agree that "no major thoroughfares be added in Tiburon," saying that development of a major street system is aimed at reduction of traffic on exclusively residential streets.

Commercial — If a 300-boat public marina were added to Tiburon, two acres of parking area might be required. Some of the land recommended for commerical use near the Safeway Store might better be used for apartments.

Industrial—The 48 acres recommended for professional-administrative use might mean 2,000 employes would work in offices there, causing considerable traffic increase.

Transportation — Consultants concurred with the probable necessity of connecting existing feeder streets with a "ridge route" in the general line of the ridge if not exactly on it.

Schools—If Angel Island were to become the site of a college, Tiburon might be overwhelmed with the restaurants, book shops, clothing stores and services required by students and visiting parents.

Parks—An aggressive land acquisition program is needed. The consultants noted the committee recommendation for formation of a city recreation commission.

Waterfront — Consulants agreed there is great need for an over-all plan for use and control of the waterfront. They agreed to preservation of Keil Cove and possibly development of a small boat harbor there.

Tiburon's use as an Angel Island Park embarkation point might be lightened by negotiation with state parks officials to supply a public park and parking space in the city, the consultants suggested.

Community Appearance—Consultants commented only that the Monterey Peninsula, to which Tiburon is compared, has developed through "choice and compromise."

Facilities — Consultants noted citizen problems of balancing the desire for a residential community with construction of facilities, such as an auditorium, which would attract outsiders.

Use of the present Tiburon Boulevard for one side of the planned four-lane widening of the road would necessitate realigning it and adding costly connections to serve commuter traffic, they noted.

Special Districts—Though the committee recommended delaying dissolution of any of Tiburon's special districts for five years, the consultants recommended a more flexible approach.

Ordinances—Zoning by referendum is illegal, would be inflexible and bring great political pressures to bear on the question, the consultants held.

Communlity Character — Research groups and large-scale cultural functions might generate too much traffic.

A questionnaire sent to all committee members in an attempt to resolve conflicting opinions in reports brought the following vote:

In favor of cluster development from duplex to fourplex, 61; in favor of cluster development with single-family or town houses, 73.

In favor of a limited number of high-rise apartments, 36; opposed to high rise, 99.

The waterfront should be open with no additional yacht harbor facilities, 80; a feasibility study should be made to explore yacht harbor construction, 52.

Keil Cove should be retained as woodland area with a small craft harbor, 101; it should be a residential area, 31.

Strictly residential streets should be narrow as possible, 44; should not be so narrow, 90.

A small hotel-motel should be permitted, 97; no hotel-motel should be permitted, 36.

A civic center should be in downtown Tiburon, 55; it should be at Trestle Glen-Tiburon Boulevard intersection, 74.

There should be no automobile ridge route, 33; there should be a route in the area of the ridge, 99.

In favor of using public funds to keep open space, 111; opposed, 20.

Elderly Housing Still San Rafael Budget Orphan

San Rafael city-built housing for elderly citizens still was a budget orphan today.

Its only mention at last night's special city council session on salaries and related budget items came just before adjournment.

City Councilman Charles W. Aby, the housing program's chief supporter, was unable to get to the meeting until 9:45 p.m. He asked for a rundown on what had happened, then whether the question of including the housing in next year's budget had arisen. The other councilmen said they would rather talk about it after they learn next Tuesday how much the raises they granted last night will cost.

Aby said he was satisfied with this.

Novato Board Seeks To Buy School Site

The Novato Unification School District board last night authorized an application to the state for permission to buy an elementary school site near Marin Oaks.

The 10-acre site, plus surveys, fees, appraisals and related items, will cost the district $109,950.

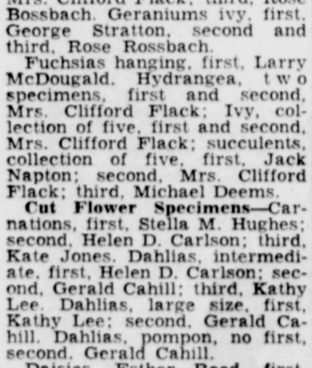

Trustees adopted the State Personnel Board survey of non-teaching personnel, which sets up job descriptions and salaries.

The board reorganized with the same officers that served during the interim between vote for the merger of San Jose School District and actual merger. Dan H. Barber, president; Mrs. Leonora Dougherty, vice president; William H. Kirk, clerk, and William Vandergriff, trustee representative.

Mrs. Mary Milbrandt was employed to teach in the business department of Novato High School.

Honorable Mention

Carl Broderick of 7 Farvue Road, Novato, has received a first honorable mention in the Alameda County Fair art show for an oil painting. The fair will open Sunday and run through July 18 at Pleasanton.

Closed Zoo May Reopen

SAN DIEGO (AP)—Non-union employees of the San Diego Zoo, which is struck for the first time in its 49-year history, said they would open major exhibits on an experimental basis today.

The zoo was shut down yesterday when 200 members of Teamsters Union Local 481—including animal keepers—walked off their jobs and began picketing the gates in a contract dispute.

Curators, veterinarians and restaurant workers were to participate in the experimental reopening. They said they would decide later whether to open for the Fourth of July weekend, which traditionally attracts upwards of 50,000 visitors.

Vaccinations For Flu Urged

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Influenza will be back this winter and the sick and aged, as well as pregnant women, should plan on getting vaccinations this fall, the Public Health Service warned today.

In issuing its recommendations, the Surgeon General's Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices avoided predicting an epidemic. But it said that in view of the fact that flu hits the country hard in cycles "somewhat increased amounts of influenza may be expected in the coming season."

Areas that had heavy outbreaks last winter may expect to be less affected, however, the committee said.

NEGRO QUESTION

Independence Day Mixed Up In U.S.

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — This is a memorable day which usually gets mixed up in the American mind. But it's a mixed up story anyway.

This country declared its independence 189 years ago today, July 2, 1776. It was on July 4, 1776 that Congress approved the Declaration of Independence which simply explained why it did what it did two days before.

But it's July 4 which is celebrated as Independence Day. On Sunday, no doubt, all over America orators will quote from the Declaration written By Thomas Jefferson.

There were contradictions in what Congress did and in Jefferson, too.

Jefferson said all men are created equal and condemned slavery. Congress accepted the statement that all men are equal but, before approving the document, knocked out the condemnation of slavery.

Thus was born a contradiction which has haunted the United States ever since: The unequal treatment of Negroes in a society which is proud of its freedom and proclaims the virtues of equality.

Jefferson in the years after 1776 urged the abolition of slavery but he kept slaves and when he died on July 4, 1826, just 50 years after his declaration, he freed only three and ordered two others freed on becoming 21.

Although he authored the stirring lines about all men's equality, in 1781, five years after the declaration, he expressed the "suspicion" that Negroes were inferior to whites.

Later the bitter struggle over slavery began and reached a screeching point in 1857 when Dred Scott, a Negro, appealed to the Supreme Court for his freedom. The court turned him down.

Chief Justice Roger Brooke Taney, a slaveholder who freed his own slaves, said neither a slave nor his descendants had any rights of citizenship. And Taney not only interpreted the Constitution but the Declaration, too.

He said the Declaration's language showed that neither slaves nor their descendants, free or not, were intended to be included in the "general words used in that memorable address."

Actually, the Declaration never mentioned slavery at all, since Congress had eliminated Jefferson's words on that, and never mentioned Negroes directly or by name.

Not satisfied with all this, Taney, although he didn't have to, went on to say Congress didn't have the authority to abolish slavery. The storm broke and the decision of this court, where five of the nine justices were Southerners, helped bring on the Civil War.

Came the war, the freeing of the slaves, and the constitutional amendments abolishing slavery and declaring Negroes citizens with all of citizens' rights, including the right to vote. Taney's decision was thus undone.

But when reaction set in the Southern states clamped restrictions on the recently freed Negroes. Once more the court stepped in, this time with a decision setting Negroes back more than half a century.

In 1896 the court said it was constitutional to segregate Negroes so long as they got equal treatment. But this meant unequal on the face of it since whites, not Negroes, made the laws segregating Negroes.

That decision stood for 58 years although the court after World War II was moving in the direction of equal treatment. Then on May 17, 1954 came one of the great explosions in American life.

Although talking only about schools, the Supreme Court in effect said segregation by its very nature meant unequal treatment and therefore couldn't stand. The court has backed this up in one decision after another ever since.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Lagunitas Lodge Dining Room Ready To Open For Holidays

Probably opening for dinner tomorrow night—or by Sunday—is Frank McAuliffe's Lagunitas Lodge on Sir Francis Drake highway, Lagunitas.

The Lodge, of course, is not new but has been there for years. But the lunch and dinner service of Joe Moyle of Fairfax is—and the dining room is large. Joe, who was cheffing recently at De La Montanya's, plans on food service every day except Tuesdays and Wednesdays. Lunches will be served from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. and a brunch on Sunday featuring eggs Benedict from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.; dinners from 7 to midnight; Sundays from 5 p.m.

Continental fare will prevail at night. Salads, shrimp Louis and hot specials will be offered at lunch.

IT'S AN ODD QUIRK of human nature that many diners-out abhor a vacuum. They'll crowd into a crowded place rather than be comfortable where there is plenty of room—even when the food's good.

I can remember a little over 18 months ago, when more of Northgate Shopping Center was either on the drawing boards or under construction than was completed. Along with Purity Store and a few other shops in Unit One, Lin Fa Gardens was one of the original business ventures.

There were plenty of blank spaces in the center. Not enough people—except for neighbors—visited Northgate to get acquainted with its establishments.

There were many times when Ethel Barrie's tables went vacant, though her food was excellent and the place was tastefully decorated. Not until the Emporium and the big names came in Unit Two did enough visitors begin to fill the place—and draw in more people who saw them there.

Ethel was one of the original Northgate lessees. She had owned the Sai Wu Garden in Westlake Shopping Center, Daly City, but had sold it out to take a long-shot chance on the new development in Marin County.

Today, Lin Fa seems to have become comfortably established as a favorite luncheon and dining spot. There are times, I think, when you'll even see more people in the Mai Tai Room than on the mall.

My personal preference is for chef Lom Hin's Cantonese food here, though there's a sizeable list of American dishes as an alternative. And once more I might suggest letting your eye roam over the menu to order a la carte instead of settling on the prescribed dinners. For instance, you won't find lobster Cantonese on the regular dinner — but it's delicious. Another recommendation: the steak and tender greens.

Lom Hin's kitchen is immaculate. He's quite a chrysanthemum grower, by the way—used to be a nurseryman.

Favorite organist Lee Lees will be on vacation July 7-10, but another headliner, Hal Schultz will be here while she's away. New bar manager is Ivan Reese, formerly at Lefty O'Doul's in San Francisco. Don't forget that Lin Fa is now serving lunches and dinners on Monday—so many people asked for them.

NEW ATTRACTION at Rancho Rafael is Gail O'Leary, 22-year-old Novato swim and Watusi dancer who has been performing at Copperwood Lodge in Daly City. She appears tonight, tomorrow and Sunday, and beginning next week — Wednesday through Saturday nights.

She is the former Gail Richardson and has been in many Marin events since her coed days at Novato High School. She used to be known as Mai Tai.

Music at the Rancho this weekend is furnished by the Rivals. Starting next Wednesday they'll be replaced by the What 4's—a foursome of two guitars, bass and drums.

THERE MAY BE some changes in restaurant schedules over the weekend. It would be wise to check out your favorite dinery.

El Borro in Tiburon will serve dinner on both Sunday and Monday from 3:30 to 10:30 p.m. — but no lunches those two days. This place will be open the rest of the week as usual.

There's a private party room at El Borro now — remodeled from the former real estate office of Rupert Jernigan next door. It will hold 14 to 16 people—but phone ahead to reserve it because it's often spoken for—particularly on Sundays.

SHE USED TO BE CALLED "MAI TAI"—Gail O'Leary of Novato appears under her own name at Rancho Rafael as a swim and Watusi dancer. Recent performances have been at Copperwood Lodge, Daly City.

FRANCHINI'S CHATEAU will be open both Sunday and Monday, too—and while you're there you might inquire about new staff member Timothy O'Toole. His quarters are in the back.

LE CHALET BASQUE is also open both days for dinner.

Here's something you might mull over for a later date. In France the main meal is usually served at noon. Saturday and Sunday Le Chalet will arrange special dinner parties at that time, in the good old French style.

PEACOCK GAP COUNTRY CLUB, which is having a big Fourth of July schedule for its residents and club members, including fireworks Sunday night, will have the dining room open to the public for lunch Saturday and Sunday from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. and for dinner from 6 to 11 p.m.—with dancing until 1 a.m. Nothing special for Monday. Golf, of course, and the club bar upstairs will have its regular Monday sandwich, soup and salad menu.

ABOUT A MONTH AGO the Town Squires provided the music at Di Pietro's Cocktail Lounge in San Rafael, and they're back for a limited engagement starting this weekend—Friday and Saturday nights.

MCKEE'S "IRISH A GO GO" pulled an unheralded opening last weekend and from what I hear, Saturday night had a terrific crowd.

This weekend is the grand opening — tomorrow and Saturday nights and Sunday afternoon starting at 2 and lasting until the crowd gets tired. (McKee's was formerly closed on Sundays).

Live music signed up consists of the Cheaters — a four-piece group and also an entertainer. Schedule now: Discotheque Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights; live music Thursday, Friday, Saturday nights and Sunday afternoon. No food at night, but lunches with table service during the week.

WORK SHOULD START soon on a new building in the Novato-Fair Shopping Center to house Sizzler's — a chain restaurant operation headquartered in Culver City.

SHAUN WILTSHIRE is having a return of the "Happy Hour" from 5:30 to 6:30 on Friday and Saturday evenings at Wiltshire Towers. Something special on the libations. Food specials then are steamed clams and abalone sandwiches.

The world revolves at a speed of 18.5 miles per second.

Tiburon Promises Refuse Firm Contract

The Tiburon City Council by 3-1 vote last night promised that Mill Valley Refuse Service Inc. will get a franchise to pick up garbage in the city.

Details of the contract, its length, the percentage of the gross which the city will receive, and perhaps the rates to customers still are to be negotiated. The company has proposed charges of $2 a month for one-can pick up in flat areas, $2.50 in hilly areas.

Representatives of the company promised the council that garbage service in all of Tiburon would continue, after a company threat earlier in the week that the firm would discontinue service for the portion of the city not now under any franchise.

The vote last night at an hour-long special meeting at Del Mar School left Councilman Fred C. Hannahs the lone holdout for competitive bidding on the franchise. Councilman Jacqueline A. Parnell was absent, on vacation.

West Bay Disposal Co., a newly formed company, also wanted the city franchise, and to prove its ability to operate drove up a giant white garbage truck on the school parking lot.

The Mill Valley Company serves part of the city under a franchise with the Tiburon Sanitary District.

The city will take over the franchise and extend it over the entire city. Residents within the sanitary district but outside the city will continue to be served by the company, as will those outside both areas, company officials said.

Report 'Clears' Bank Charges

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown said he felt a report submitted to him by John A. O'Kane, state superintendent of banks, cleared O'Kane of any charges that he might have been negligent in regulation of the Frontier Bank in Covelo.

The bank closed last year after certain irregularities. A grand jury had charged O'Kane with negligence in the case. Earlier this week, O'Kane submitted a lengthy report to Brown on all aspects of his handling of the Covelo situation.

Brown said O'Kane's report was "an effective refutation of charges that he was negligent in his regulation of the Frontier Bank."

Bandleader Claude Thornhill Dies Of Heart Attack At 56

CALDWELL, N.J. (UPI)—Tin Pan Alley today mourned the death of band leader Claude Thornhill, one of the originators of the "big band sound" who died of a heart attack at his home here yesterday. He was 56.

Thornhill made his mark in the American music world at the height of the big band era in the late '30s and '40s as a pianist, composer, arranger and conducter.

A native of Terre Haute, Ind., Thornhill entered the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music at the age of 16 and studied piano, violin, clarinet, organ, trumpet, and arrangement.

That same year he and clarinetist Artie Shaw started their careers together at the Golden Pheasant in Cleveland with the Austin Wiley Orchestra.

Thornhill and Shaw went to New York together in 1931. During the 1930s Thornhill played with the first Benny Goodman band, the first Ray Noble band and was associated with Glen Miller.

He was a pianist - arranger for Hal Kemp, Paul Whiteman, Andre Kostelanetz, Freddie Martin, Goodman, Noble and others.

Besides his wife, Thornhill is survived by his mother, Mrs. Maude Thornhill, 81, of Terre Haute who has conducted choirs all her life and is still active.

$61,000 Tentative Budget Is Adopted By Council

A balanced tentative budget for fiscal 1966 of about $61,000, which is not expected to increase last year's tax rate of $1.09 per $100 assessed valuation, was adopted by the Corte Madera Town Council in a special meeting last night.

Mayor Edward W. Colthurst's suggestion that each department head make a 5 per cent cut in his budget was approved by the council.

Colthurst reported the department heads had agreed to the cut.

A 2½ per cent cost of living increase in all town employees' salaries was included in the budget.

Public hearing on the final budget was set for 8 p.m., Aug. 16.

The budget proposal was adopted before an audience of one newspaper reporter. Councilman Albert E. Kogler was absent.

Public hearing on proposed new building, plumbing and electrical codes was set for 8 p.m., Aug. 2.

The council hired Mrs. Lorraine Haley, former employee of the City of Novato, to replace Mrs. Carolyn d'Autremont, account clerk, who resigned.

Lions Club Plans Champagne Cruise

The Sausalito Lions Club will hold a champagne cruise starting at 7:30 p.m. Sunday to sail on the bay and watch the fireworks display on the Marina, San Francisco. The cruise is open to the public and there will be a charge, according to Frank Trojanowski, co-chairman.

The cruise leaves from Spinnaker Restaurant. Ticket information is available from Trojanowski at Trojan Properties, 33 Caledonia Street, Sausalito.

Hamburger and CHAMPAGNE?
Well, not for everybody.
You have to be 21 and come over to Sam's in Tiburon to get it.
And, if you find fulfillment in the works of Edgar Guest, Paul Harvey, Daddy Warbucks, Jane Addams, Norman Rockwell, and Henry Doelger... you might prefer to stick with Sam's tried and true Burger & Beer.
But if a spark of the bon vivant burns in your soul, your taste will be abundantly rewarded with this bizarre combination.
Sam's Anchor Cafe has even bottled its own champagne for the occasion.

Fair Brings Back 1900

SNACK-TIME — Many Marinites worked up an appetite while walking about the Marin Art and Garden Fair grounds at opening last night, and had impromptu dinner out in the warm summer evening. The Fair will run through Monday.

WINNING WEAVERS — Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Stout of 10 Barker Avenue, Fairfax, and their daughter, Mary Anne, (center) pause to admire the Tamalpais Weavers' Guild's exhibit, loom and all, which won first place in the petit point garden design.

SUMMERHOUSE — A setting sun shines on the fountain adding beauty to the summerhouse exhibit of the Santa Venetia Nursery, which was awarded a third place in the summerhouse category.

AT LEAST IT DOESN'T BITE

That made it better than a vicious dog, but Carol Williams's plaster statue still obstructed delivery of mail to her home at 158 Stetson Avenue in Corte Madera, the mailman complained. Her brother, David, 18, moved it from the road to the front of the house. Carol, 20, made the large abstraction in her art class at College of Marin, and the postmen, who claim to be impervious to rain, sleet and snow, couldn't cope with this one and complained to police. The police report reads, "You have to see it to believe it." (Independent-Journal photo)

Beach Shut For Summer Park Work

Drake's Beach, now part of the Point Reyes National Seashore, will soon be closed for the rest of the summer as work gets underway on improvements, Gordon Patterson, acting park superintendent, announced today.

Although it is the height of the tourist season, Patterson said the job has been scheduled for the summer because a long dry period is needed to do the work.

"In the long run, we think this will work out for the best," he said.

Contract for the road alterations to the former county beach, installation of picnic facilities and water and sewer systems has tentatively been awarded to Gill Construction Co. and Lindo Engineering of Santee, San Diego County.

The job also includes construction of a second road to Point Reyes Beach, three miles north of the recently completed road. Picnic, water and sanitary facilities will also be constructed in that job.

The firm was the lowest of four bidders on the job at $566,307.84, Patterson said. The contract award must be confirmed in Washington, Patterson said.

Six million more women will take jobs within the next five years, according to estimates.

Science Series Set On Seashore Area

Point Reyes National Seashore is the theme this year for the annual science lecture series sponsored by the University of the Pacific Marin Research station at Dillon Beach.

This summer the National Park Service at the Seashore will join in sponsoring the weekly lectures to be held at West Marin school in Point Reyes Station.

Each lecture will begin at 8 p.m. on Friday, except the most popular of the series, the annual seaweed excursion scheduled for July 31.

Robert D. Barbee of the National Park Service will give a "closer look" at the national seashore in his lecture tonight. He is a specialist in plants and ecology of the area.

"Problems of Geology" of Point Reyes will be the subject July 9 when geologist L. Richard McBridge of the National Park Service speaks.

A movie on the redwoods, Mendocino County, ano nuevo and Point Reyes will be shown July 16 by Mrs. Laurel Reynolds.

Oyster and Mussel farming in Europe and in Tomales Bay will be explained July 23 by Victor L. Loosanoff, senior scientist for the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service at Tiburon.

Archaeology of the Point Reyes area will be explained by Adan Treganza on July 30. He is a professor at San Francisco State College who has conducted excavations in the Point Reyes area.

On July 31 the annual seaweed excursion will leave the Dillon Beach research station at 7:30 a.m., in time to catch the low tide. George F. Papenfuss will lead the group.

The series will conclude with a talk by Joel W. Hedgpeth, former director of the Dillon Beach station, on Aug. 6, when he will explain the seashore life of the Point Reyes Area.

On Honor Roll

Stephen J. Titus of 1060 Los Gamos Drive, Apt. B, Terra Linda, was named to the spring term honor roll at Oregon State University, where he received bachelor's degree in forestry last month.

Four Elected To Property Owner Board

Four men were elected Wednesday to the board of directors of the Marin Property Owners Assn.

Two directors submitted their resignations.

Resigning were Walter R. Castro Jr. and Edward Erdelatz.

President C. A. Stevens said the group has received 40 applications for the post of association executive director.

This list has been narrowed to six, he said, with three yet to be interviewed.

Coast Guard Airmen Cited For Rescuing

Three Coast Guard airmen have received official commendation for their "meritorious achievement" in rescuing eight persons from a stranded fishing boat on rock of Duxbury Point, near Bolinas, last October.

Lt. Cmdr. Wilfred H. Shaw received the Air Medal at the Coast Guard Air Station in San Francisco Tuesday. Letters of commendation also were awarded to his co-pilot, Lt. Ronald L. Herpolsheimer, and Frederick A. Vandenbroeck, aviation machinist mate third class.

The helicopter crew was cited for action on Oct. 25, when they rescued eight persons from the fishing vessel Mark B. The mission was accomplished at night and in adverse weather conditions.

After an hour's search, Shaw and his crew discovered the boat and hoisted four victims into the helicopter, then returned for the other four.

HONKY-TONK TIBURON??

We read with interest an article written by Ellen Bry in the Independent-Journal June 24, 1965 covering Tiburon committee's studying residential development, community character and community appearance under the title of "Tiburon Residential Theme Is Underlined." One point in question (stated by the committee)...

"specifically we noted the existence of something like 9 bars in one block on Main St., etc., etc."

The one block referred to includes the following bona fide restaurants which as in the majority of all restaurants throughout California provide cocktail facilities for their patrons.

- Tiburon Tommies
- 39 Main
- Sams Anchor Cafe
- The Dock

We are indeed fortunate that Main St. of Tiburon has to its credit 6 most attractive restaurants with 4 offering cocktail facilities, plus 1 bona-fide bar.

We would like to ask the following question . . .

"Without these places of business would not your taxes be even higher??"

Western Expert Can Show How To Get Most Of '52'

Thirty years ago the best bridge player in the West was a slip of a girl named Helen White. After marriage and a trip to New York, the Western star became famous as Helen Sobel, the world's best woman player (and at least the equal of any man).

With her recent marriage to Stanley Smith, a Detroit accountant, tournament buffs hope the fair Helen will return to showing the rest of the world how to get the most out of 52 cards.

Opening lead — ◇ K

Today's hand shows the defensive skill of the then Helen Sobel. As West, Mrs. S. (this solves the problem of which name to use) led the king of diamonds and continued with the ace.

EAST SIGNAL

Since East's high-low signal made it clear that South held the last diamond, Mrs. S. continued with the jack of diamonds. If dummy ruffed with a high trump, West would get a trump trick.

South was afraid to ruff with a high trump (although he might have made his contract if he had done so) and saw no advantage in ruffing low and letting East over-ruff.

DISCARDS CLUB

Instead he discarded a club from dummy, hoping to limit his club loss to two tricks.

East discarded the seven of clubs to show his strength, and Mrs. S. held the trick with the jack of diamonds.

Now it was important to grab two club tricks before doing anything else, so Mrs. S. led the nine of clubs to the king and won the club return with the ace.

SAFE TRICKS

With those tricks safely stashed away, Mrs. S. led a fourth diamond. Declarer ruffed with the deuce of hearts in dummy, hoping that East would carelessly over-ruff with a low trump. But East, a gent by the name of Charles Goren, smiled grimly at this feeble last effort and ruffed with the ten of hearts.

South had to over-ruff with the queen of hearts, and now Mrs. S. was sure to defeat the contract with a trump trick.

We hope to see many more such defenses from Mrs. Stanley Smith.

ALMANAC

Today is Friday, July 2, the 183rd day of 1965 with 182 to follow.

The moon is approaching its first quarter. The morning stars are Saturn and Jupiter. The evening stars are Venus and Mars.

Olaf the Fifth, king of Norway, was born on this day in 1903.

On this day in history:

In 1776, the Continental Congress formally passed the Declaration of Independence from Britain. The document was signed two days later.

In 1890, Congress passed the Sherman Anti-trust Act, later to be used to break up business trusts.

In 1937, famed American aviatrix Amelia Earhart and her co-pilot were lost in the Pacific Ocean. They were never found.

A thought for the day — English satirist Johathan Swift said: "Every man desires to live long, but no man would be old."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. SONS WATCH DAD TAKE OATH

Alvin H. Goldstein Jr. (right) was sworn in yesterday as judge of Marin Municipal Court by State Supreme Court Justice Stanley Mosk, his former boss in the State Department of Justice. Andrew Goldstein, 3, seemed puzzled by the proceedings, but his older brother, 7-year-old Michael, was distracted by something amusing behind Judge Mosk. Firecrackers Pop Off Around Marin

Firecracker fanciers can't even wait until the Fourth of July to break the law against fireworks, San Rafael police reported today.

Firecrackers popped Wednesday night in Bret Harte and Terra Linda.

Hale P. Bento, 251 Bret Harte Road, saw a car speeding away after a firecracker exploded in his mailbox at 9:15 p.m. The box was undamaged.

In Terra Linda, a neighbor confiscated part of a string of firecrackers after a 12-year-old boy popped 16 of them on Las Pavadas Avenue at about 10 p.m. The boy told police he had been sold the fireworks by an unidentified 15-year-old who also had cherry bombs for sale.

Fireworks are illegal everywhere in Marin County, authorities reminded today.

Marin City Center Design Sought Of Supervisors

The Marin County Human Rights Commission last night agreed to ask the board of supervisors to direct development of a specific design for community center facilities in Marin City.

Needed in the center are a recreation building, quarters for the branch library, fire department and sheriff's substation.

Carl Mosher of Mill Valley, chairman; Richard S. Harding, Eugene Crawford and Lester Bailey of San Rafael, Leonard Sperry of Tiburon, R. P. Parker of Sausalito, James Smith of San Anselmo, and J. V. Hawley of Mill Valley.

To the subcommittee on neighborhood youth councils, Quiett appointed Rev. John O'Connor of San Rafael and Mrs. Harry Bailey and Mrs. Robert Murphy of Mill Valley.

Next meeting of the commission will be July 15.

DENNIS SILVA

Dennis Silva, 13, of 29 Harcourt Street, San Rafael, has been elected state chaplain of the Sons of the American Legion.

Dennis was elected at the state convention of the Sons of the American Legion in San Diego. He is a member of Squadron 81 of Gonzales, Monterey County. "The San Rafael squadron is new and I haven't bothered to transfer yet," explained Dennis.

Public Inspection Due At Mill Valley Center

Tomorrow at 10 a.m. the Mill Valley Community and Youth Center will be open for its first public inspection at the start of a three-day "grand old fourth" celebration.

There will be game booths, refreshment stands and "fun for all," according to G. W. Robertson, chairman of the event. The center, built mainly by volunteer labor of adults and teen-agers, is located on project 17 and reached via Sycamore Avenue extension.

Sunday will be the "big day" of the three with a costume parade, floats, an Uncle Sam, the Liberty Bell replica and the color guard from Marine Corps Reserve M Co., Fourth Battalion, 23rd Marines, San Rafael.

All children are invited to don costumes for the parade, said parade marshal Richard Parino. They are requested to gather Sunday at 12:15 p.m. at Miller and Locust avenues for the parade which begins at 1 p.m.

Airmen from the 666th Radar Squadron atop Mount Tamalpais will assist with parking at the Center.

Sunday at 1 p.m. the parade will start from Miller and Locust avenues and going to the community center. Immediately following the parade, flag raising by the marine reserve color guard.

Capt. A. R. Cook, Chaplain, 12th Naval District, will speak, followed by presentation of certificates to persons who participated in building of the center by Mayor Michael Wornum.

City Councilman William M. Secor will present awards for best costumes and best bicycle decorations.

The Orfeons, 12 a cappella singers from Torreon, Mexico, will sing, and Mrs. Mary McIlwain of Mill Valley will give a table tennis exhibition.

Following these activities, the building will be open for games and refreshments.

At 9:45 p.m. there will be a fireworks display.

No Complaint To Be Issued

No complaint will be issued against George Robinson, 22, and John Lawrence Bell, 18, in an alleged car tampering Sunday near Franchini's Chateau, 4500 Redwood Highway, according to Joshua Thomas, deputy district attorney.

Thomas said two other men, Mark Francis Claytor, 21, and Joseph Lloyd Lombard, 26, have been charged with the misdemeanor offense, however. All are from Petaluma and were arrested after a deputy sheriff spotted two men allegedly removing tires and wheels from the vehicle.

Robinson and Bell were present but were only sitting in a second vehicle, officers said.

Sleepy Hollow Pillar Gates Study Proposed

The Sleepy Hollow Homes Assn. last night formed a committee to investigate the cost and design for pillar gates at either side of the entrance to the hollow.

Harold D. Lang of 140 Sleepy Hollow Drive has offered to contribute $500 toward the project if the association would match this sum. William V. Duffield of 160 Legend Road will head the committee, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Ivancovich.

Final plans were made at the meeting for the July Fourth celebration Sunday at the clubhouse, including swimming, games and a barbecue. The activities will start at 2 p.m., the barbecue at 4.

The association also decided to sponsor an Explorer Scout group, Troop 50. It already sponsors Cub Scout Packs 50 and 70 and Boy Scout Troop 70.

The Teen Club announced that its recent car wash raised $25 for the United Nations Childrens Emergency Fund (UNICEF).

The association's next meeting will be July 15 at 8 p.m. in the clubhouse.

Jobless Rate Up For June

WASHINGTON (AP) — The unemployment rate increased to 4.7 per cent in June after hitting an eight-year low of 4.6 per cent in May. But non-farm employment reached a record level of 67,459,000.

Reporting these figures Thursday, the Labor Department said they were based on the first 12 days of the month and therefore did not reflect the full impact of the entry into the job market of college and high school students.

Total employment for the month reached 72.6 million, up from 72.4 million in May.

Novato Asks Low-Cost Housing

The Novato Planning Commission in a study session on the master plan last night agreed the plan did not appear to make possible housing of various types and a range of costs.

Commissioners felt some provision for making low-cost housing possible would be desirable, and were groping for a method to do this, but agreed finally that "it wasn't in the cards," reported planning director Robert Lagle.

The commission discussed format of the plan, reviewed objectives and studied population projections. They agreed the topography of the North Marin area would fairly well limit the density of the ultimate population. They felt the projections were realistic, Lagle said.

A second study session next Thursday at 8 p.m. in city hall will cover industrial and commercial aspects of the plan.

Four Killed As Planes Collide

RANGOON, Burma (AP) — Two Burmese air force pilots and two trainees were killed yesterday when their planes collided in the air, the Mirror reported today.

Hub School Board Elects New Officers

Dr. Elmer A. Weden Jr. of 49 Oak Knoll Drive, San Anselmo, was elected president of the San Anselmo School District board last night.

Joseph E. Tilt was elected clerk, and Franklin Latcham was elected trustee representative.

The board agreed to continue its monthly meetings at 7:30 p.m. on the third Tuesday.

Contract for development of the Red Hill School site was awarded to Cima Construction Co. of San Jose at $87,830, lowest of nine bids submitted.

Grading of the site is expected to begin in two weeks and will be completed by October, said Supt. Stephen Parodi.

Next meeting of the board will be at 7:30 p.m. July 15 to discuss plans for the Red Hill School and the Hidden Valley School addition with district architects.

West Germans Hold Up Two Red Barges

BONN, Germany (AP)—Two Communist East German barges were held up today at Schnackenburg of the Elbe River because their captains refused to sign the usual permits for entering West German waters, Chancellor Ludwig Erhard's spokesman reported.

Press chief Karl Guenther Von Hase told a news conference that the Communist government "is obviously making a test" of conditions under which barge traffic can move between the two Germanys.

Possible Rabies Infection Checked

The Marin County Health Department today was checking for possible rabies infection in a skunk shot by a San Rafael policeman Wednesday as it staggered about unable to direct its movements.

Patrolman Robert Larrison was sent to 11 Estates Drive, San Rafael, when Charles Akins of 16 Estates Drive complained about the skunk's unhappy but menacing presence.

Market Has Another Rally, Closes High

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market staged another late rally and closed higher today.

It was the fourth straight day of advance.

The pattern of action paralleled that of Thursday with prices lower most of the time until the final hour of trading.

Advancing issues outnumbered losers by a wide margin.

The late surge came somewhat as a surprise as the market had been expected to loll in advance of the three-day Fourth of July weekend.

Advances of key issues ranged from fractions to a point or so.

Up a point or more were General Motors, Chrysler, American Telephone, Xerox, Eastern Air Lines, General Electric and Du Pont.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4 million shares, compared with 4.52 million yesterday.

Here was the picture near the close:

Prices edged into the plus column after having been lower most of the morning.

Wall Street was playing it cool before the three-day Fourth of July weekend. The market will be closed Monday.

The market didn't seem to be under any pressure but it had lost, at least temporarily, the momentum that carried it surging through the three previous sessions.

The rally had snapped a six-week losing streak that began after the averages reached their all-time peak May 14.

Rubbers and utilities advanced while most of the other groups were mixed.

Changes of key issues were mostly fractional with a few going to a point.

General Motors advanced more than a point and Ford was up a minor fraction.

Loans, Deposits, Resources Up For B. Of A.

SAN FRANCISCO — Bank of America rang up substantial growth in loans, deposits and resources, according to mid-year figures just released.

Loans now total $9,619,244,794, an increase of $766,407,544 since a year ago.

Deposits reached $14,351,236,315, an increase of $976,411,639 over a year ago.

Total resources rose to $15,870,975,941, an increase of $1,061,070,144 over this time last year.

Temporary Office

SAN FRANCISCO — Fidelity Savings and Loan Association of Berkeley has opened a San Francisco office in temporary quarters at 252 California Street. The association expects to open a permanent office in the Golden Gateway area within the next three to six month.

Trans-Atlantic Flight Expansion 20 Years Old

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The first post World War II expansion of transatlantic commercial air service was approved 20 years ago Monday by President Harry Truman.

On that date the president approved the Civil Aeronautics Board's designation of Trans World Airlines — then known as Transcontinental and Western Air — as the third U.S. flag airline across the Atlantic.

The routes of two other airlines (Pan American Airways and American Export Airlines) also were expanded by the same CAB order.

TWA, which up to that time had operated only a domestic airline, was authorized to fly between six U.S. cities (Chicago, Detroit, Washington, Philadelphia, New York and Boston) to Europe, Africa and Asia via Paris, Geneva, Rome, Athens, Cairo and on to Bombay, India.

TWA also was authorized to serve Newfoundland, Eire, Switzerland, Italy, Palestine (now Israel), Trans-Jordan, Iraq, Saudi Arabia, Yemen, Oman, Portugal, Spain, Algeria, Tunisia and Libya.

Firm Reports New Highs

Citizens Federal Savings and Loan Assn. has reported a new high of 341 million dollars in total assets as of June 30.

The sum represents a growth of 12 per cent in the last 12 months. Savings reached 274 million dollars—13 per cent over the June 30, 1964 figure. Home mortgage loans totaled approximately 300 million dollars—up 11 per cent.

Citizens, headquartered in San Francisco, maintains an office in the Northgate Shopping Center, Marin County.

Contract Awarded

Diesel Engineering and Maintenance Co., Sausalito, has been awarded a $3,700 ship repair contract by the Army's San Francisco Procurement District.

De Gaulle Has Market Setback

BRUSSELS (UPI) — President Charles de Gaulle's leadership of the European Common Market suffered its first sharp setback when the partners in the six nation EEC rejected France's billion dollar demands for a community wide farm policy.

The policy would have benefitted France mainly.

MOVE OVER, BEVERLY HILLS!

Beverly Hills may think it has a corner on uniforms worn by employees of savings and loan firms, to judge by a story which appeared in the Independent-Journal Tuesday. But Ross Valley Savings and Loan Assn. in San Anselmo had 'em a year ago and they look very chic when worn by (left to right) Mrs. Charles Woolborg, Mrs. Gene Taylor, Mrs. James Lethbridge and Mrs. Raymond Ingram.

Emerson Crushes Stolle For Wimbledon Title

ALONG MARIN'S SPORTS TRAIL

By JIM GILMARTIN
I-J Sports Editor

Women's Golf Can Be Fun; Life Is One Big 'Mulligan' To Them

Marin County abounds in women golfers. Mostly out abounds, but you must admit they are a lot of fun. Especially their scores.

When we take their tourney results over the 'phone we don't know if it's their weight, measurements, area code or golf. Some of the figures read like a stock report. Blue chips. If they could only bowl those scores!

I don't know how, when or why women ever got started in pasture pool, but they've done a pretty good job of lousing up a fairly simple game. Their basic problem is they stand too close to the ball. After they hit it.

Women not only inspired the handicap system, they have complicated it. They will do anything to lower their scores. Like, for example, their famous "Odd or Even" tourney in which they county only the strokes scored on the odd or even numbered holes, whichever are fewer. As if that's not enough, they take two thirds of what's left, divide it by two, subtract their legitimate handicap and submit the results to a CPA for audit.

ALSO, THERE'S the "Throw Out Three" tourney in which they simply ignore the three worst holes on their card. Like Willie Mays telling the scorekeeper to forget those three strikeouts.

The ladies, bless their larcenous hearts, are experts at deduction. A trick they also practice in reporting their ages and weights. Just throw out the worst three years and 30 pounds, dearie.

Oh, there are several other cute little tournaments, like the "Three Little Pigs." Don't ask me what THAT is; I've been afraid to ask.

ANOTHER CURIOUS event is the T and F tourney. I think that means they don't count scores they shoot on days beginning with those letters — Tuesday, Thursday, Friday. So, if they start a round on Sunday and finish by Saturday they get three days off for good behaviour. Or, maybe those initials stand for holes—like first, third, fourth, etc. So, if they discount all the T's and F's on the calendar and make two and a half miles of green real estate disappear, they win a prize.

I ALSO like the eclectic tournaments. They just keep blasting away until their scores come down from outer space. For example, if Mrs. Annie Fay shoots a 16 on a par three hole she just completely ignores it until, in future rounds, the score shrinks to respectability. THEN she counts it.

I know one woman who has been playing the same eclectic tournanment since 1946. Life is just one great big Mulligan for her.

As if these handicap systems are not enough, one publicist for a local club admitted to me that she fibbed about the scores she submitted to the paper, ". . . so as not to embarrass some of the girls." The original unplayable lie!

MY LOVE for girlie golf dates back many years to the days I slaved as a caddy at the Meadow Club. Being the dumbest little 12-year-old kid in the caddy corps, I always drew the choicest assignments. Like packing double for a couple of dizzy dollies who couldn't hit a ball straight through a pipe. Which means I did more zig-zagging than a World War II troop ship across the Atlantic. War is hell, but this is ridiculous!

I should have been twins. My mother reported me to the Missing Persons Bureau so often the cops got to calling me by my first name: "Hey, Stupid!"

I GOT the impression I was in for a workout on the first tee when my grew-some twosome bade each other a tearful farewell, all the while singing Auld Lang Syne. They wouldn't see each other again for days.

But, caddying had its rewards. I'll never forget the day I was packing solod for this reject from Slenderella whose uniform of the day consisted of halter and shorts. A sort of walking Disneyland, or "How did they get those eight great tomatoes in that itty-bitty can?"

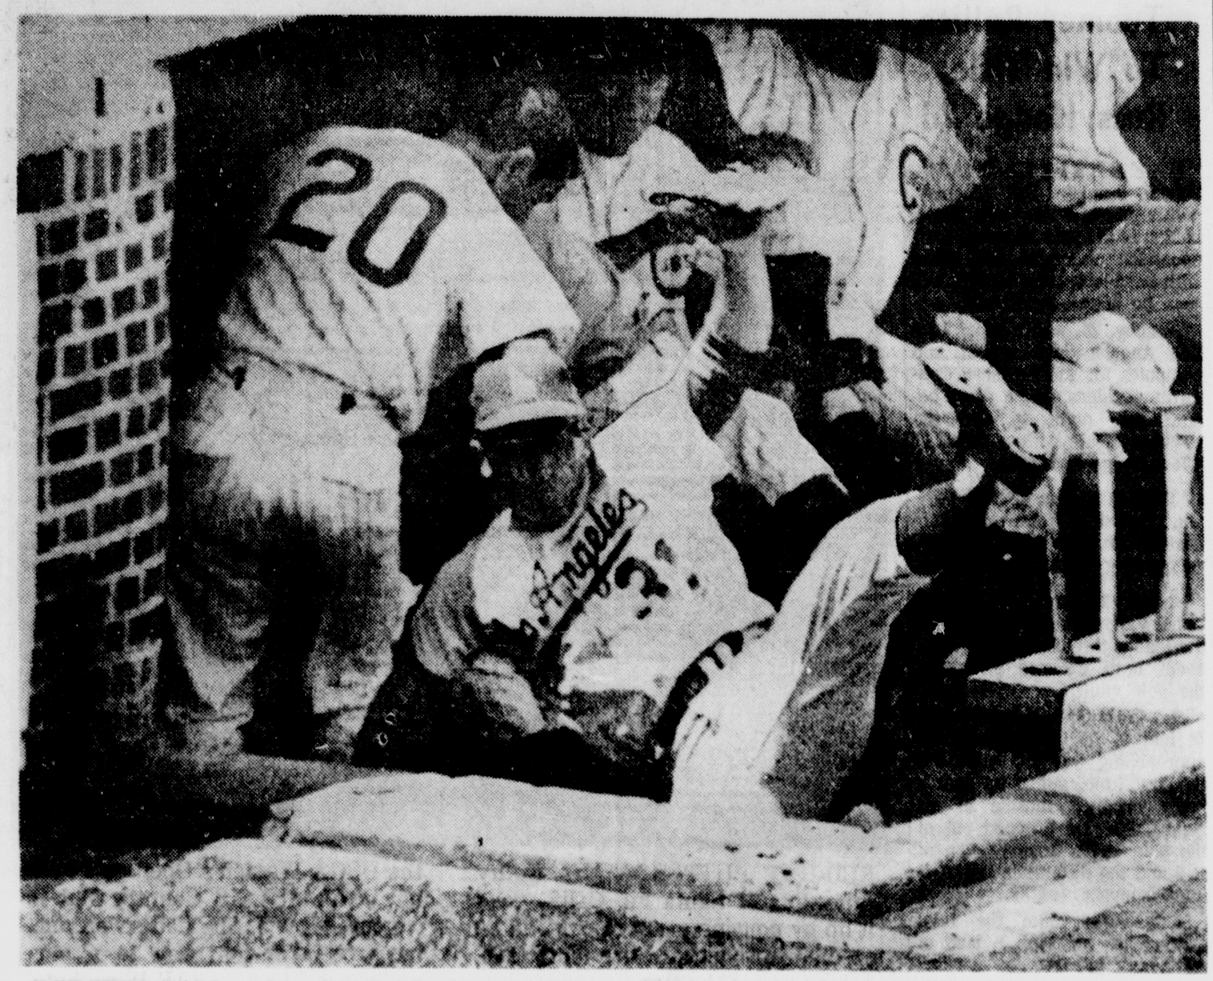

ANYWAY, AT the tender age of 12 I thought a halter was somnething the Lone Ranger whoa'd Silver with. But her's broke right in the middle of the backswing on the 17th tee. This being a family newspaper and all I can't go into detail, but I tell you it was a great letdown. For me, too. In one swell foop me Lone Ranger world has been unmasked. I needed Tonto, pronto.

My employer quickly regained her composure etcetera, however, and, without batting an eye, demanded: "Caddy, did you see where the ball went?" To which I innocently replied, "What ball?" (I told you I was the dumbest little kid you ever saw.)

I WASN'T fired, but thereafter I was the first caddy ever equipped with blinders. Also, I was quite a celebrity around the caddy shack.

But, in spite of that exciting start and years of reporting sports, I still cannot figure out women's golf.

In the first place, I flunked math in school. And in the second place, like most women golfers, I didn't keep my eye on the ball.

THE NATIONAL LEAGUE

Phils Hot, Dodgers Slip

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

It's practically unanimous around the National League that Richie Allen of the Philadelphia Phillies is an annoying fellow.

He annoys some sportswriters because when asked a question he usually thinks twice and says nothing. He gave the Phillies' front office fits last spring when he staged a determined — and successful—holdout before signing his 1965 contract. And now he's making himself public enemy No. 1 to N. L. pitchers.

The square - shouldered Philadelphia third baseman was the N.L. Rookie of the Year in 1964 when he batted .318 with 29 homers and 91 runs batted in. "Beware of the sophomore jinx," said the critics but Allen fears nothing as long as he has a bat in his hands.

The 23-year-old product of Wampum, Pa., is making the time - honored soph jinx sound like an old wives' tale this season with a .335 batting average that gives him a three-point lead over Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants and Hank Aaron and Joe Torre of the Milwaukee Braves.

Allen took over the lead last night when the Phillies beat the Braves 2-1 for their fifth straight victory. Allen went 1-for-3 to remain at .335 while Aaron had an 0-for-4 night and fell five points from .337.

Ray Culp, one of the Phillies' off - again - on - again pitchers, came through with a three-hitter for his fifth win against four losses while Ken Johnson suffered his fourth loss. Culp was tagged for the Milwaukee run in the fifth on singles by Mack Jones and Denis Menke and a passed ball but didn't allow another hit until Torre singled with two out in the ninth.

The Phillies scored their first run in the second inning on Allen's walk and a triple by Clay Dalrymple. Culp scored the winning run in the eighth when he singled and came around on a sacrifice, an infield out and Johnny Callison's single.

The Chicago Cubs beat the first-place Los Angeles Dodgers 6-3, the St. Louis Cardinals rallied for a 7-6 decision over the Pittsburgh Pirates and the New York Mets defeated the Cincinnati Reds 5-1, in other NL action.

Glenn Beckert drove in four runs with two homers and Ernie Banks also had two hits for the Cubs, who dealt Johnny Podres his fifh loss against five victories. Lindy McDaniel shut out the Dodgers for 2 2-3 innings of relief to win his third game although Ted Abernathy finished the game.

The Cardinals beat the Pirates for the 14th straight time at Pittsburgh's Forbes Field by scoring four runs in the eighth inning and three in the ninth. Singles by Phil Gagliano, Curt Flood and Ken Boyer and Mike Shannon's double produced the three ninth-inning runs and lifted relief pitcher Hal Woodeshick to his fifth victory.

Ed Kranepool hit a two-run homer and Ron Swoboda a two-run triple to pave the way for the Mets' Al Jackson to win his fourth game. Jackson pitched a seven-hitter and struck out four in besting Jim Maloney of frustrated no-hit fame, who struck out seven in six innings but was tagged for three runs and six hits.

New Putter Carries Baxter To Western Open Golf Lead

By JERRY LISKA

CHICAGO (AP) — Rex Baxter, a philosophical Texan, hoped today his new putter was sighted on his second pro golf triumph in seven years as the $70,000 Western Open went into the second round.

The 29-year-old Baxter, an NCAA champion for the University of Houston in 1957, shot a five-under-par 66 at Tam O'Shanter yesterday for a one-stroke lead.

Six players were knotted at 68, including Frank Wharton, Joe Campbell, Fred Hawkins, Sonny Methvin, Bill Garrett and Tom Aaron.

In all, 32 players broke par 71 in the quest for the $11,000 first prize.

Included among 13 bunched at 69 was British Open champion Tony Lema, the Western's headline attraction. The Big Three of U. S. Open champion Gary Player, Jack Nicklaus and Arnie Palmer skipped this meet.

Baxter, currently 74th on the PGA money list with $5,114, won his only pro tourney at the close of the 1963 tour, the Cajun Classic at Lafayette, La.

A new putter he first tested in last weekend's St. Paul Open figured in Baxter's 33-33 round in which he sank two taps from 20 feet and one from 12 to account for three of his six birdies against one bogey. Baxter, USGA junior champion in 1953, turned pro in 1958.

"I've been in a putting slump for 14 months and maybe I'm out of it," said Baxter. "But, after playing golf for 17 years, I find I still can't tell you one thing about putting."

The clowning Rodriguez found his key to his 67 in a watermelon taboo. He said he discovered that three weeks of eating watermelon five and six times a day had bloated him 19 pounds to 143.

"A doctor said watermelons did it, "he said. "I sweated off nine pounds in a steam bath Tuesday night. I'm just about five pounds over my normal playing weight now. I love this course just like I love watermelon which now I can't eat."

The field will be trimmed to the low 75 players and ties after today's second round. After 54 holes Saturday, it will be cut to the low 60 and ties for Sunday's closing round.

WORLD GAMES

An American Coup In Helsinki Meet

HELSINKI, Finland (AP) — Jim Grelle, the fast-finishing tactician from Oregon, has parlayed French dynamo Michael Jazy's absence and the form failure of Olympic champion Peter Snell into an American coup in the 1,500 meter run —highlight of the World Track and Field Games.

With Jazy, world record holder at the mile, two miles and 3,000 meters, on the sidelines and Snell unable to mount the pace that made him the world's premier middle distance runner a year ago, the methodical Grelle nipped former Oregon teammate Dyrol Burleson in yesterday's 1,500. Snell finished a distant fifth in the comparatively slow race.

Grelle, outsprinting Burleson after the pair caught pacesetter John Davies, Snell's New Zealand countryman with 200 meters to go, was clocked in 3:40.8. Burleson finished in 3:41.4. Snell, whose winning time at the Tokyo Olympics last fall was 3:38.1, trailed Davies and Poland's Witold Baran in 3:43.7.

The victory gave the Americans six firsts in the Games. Theron Lewis of Southern University won the 200-meter dash in 21 seconds. Bob Segren of Los Angeles took the pole vault at 16-1, and Ron Whitney of Los Angeles captured the 400-meter hurdles in 52 seconds yesterday.

U.S. athletes won two events on Wednesday's opening program.

Jazy, who set a European mark for 5,000 meters, chose not to compete in the 1,500 meters or the 10,000 meters, although he was scheduled to run in one of the two yesterday. He and Australian distance star Ron Clarke spent the day visiting three former distance champions from Finland—Hannes Kolehmainen, Lauri Lehtinen and the legendary Paavo Nurmi.

Second Straight For Aussie Star

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Roy Emerson crushed fellow Australian Fred Stolle 6-2, 6-4, 6-4 today and won the Wimbledon Tennis Championship for the second straight year.

It was a repeat of the 1964 final when Emerson whipped his Davis Cup teammate in four sets. It was the third consecutive year in which Stolle was beaten in the final of this tournament, regarded as the world championship of amateur tennis.

A sellout crowd of 16,000 jammed the stands surrounding the famed center court to watch the Aussie masters match strokes on a cloudy afternoon.

The United States was shut out of both the men's and women's singles finals. Defending champion Maria Bueno of Brazil will meet arch-rival Margaret Smith of Australia for the women's title Saturday.

67 MINUTES

It took the 29-year-old Emerson just 67 minutes of almost faultless tennis to clean up the final.

This was the eighth time in 10 years the men's title has been captured by an Australian.

The lean Emerson, quick as a tiger and just as deadly, was on top all the way. He took Stolle's opening service and from then on until the beginning of the last set, Emerson was in complete charge.

Emerson forced Stolle into one error after the other. He was quicker, served better, was deadly with his precise volley and completely outwitted his tall and anxious rival.

U.S. Crew Breezes To Win

HENLEY-ON-THAMES, England (AP) — The Olympic champion Vesper Boat Club eight of Philadelphia, breezed to a 3½ lengths victory over the Nautilus Club of Britain today and reached the Saturday final for the Grand Challenge Cup.

The Philadelphians will meet the German Ratzeburger crew for the championship in the blue ribbon event of the Henley Royal Regatta. The Gerans earlier racked up a three lengths victory over the University of London.

Vesper upset the famed Ratzeburgers, 1960 Olympic champions, at Tokyo last November. The German rowers had gone unbeaten from 1960 until it was beaten by the Vespers.

The Germans were timed in 6:30 for the mile, 550 yards course. All races were at the same distance on the Thames.

Vesper was clocked in 6:28, 10 seconds slower than the record it had set in eliminating previously undefeated Harvard's varsity on Thursday.

The Britons were 1¼ lengths down after the first half mile and had lost another length at the midway point. The Americans, rowing with plenty in hand, still pulled away in the last few hundred yards.

Cornell University's lightweights defeated the Derby Rowing Club of England by two-thirds of a length and gained the semifinals of the Thames Challenge Cup for eight-oared boats.

Two Massachusetts prep schools, Tabor Aacademy of Marion, and Phillips Academy of Andover, easily gained the semifinals for schoolboy eights.

Tabor defeated Hampton Grammar of England by 2¾ lengths in 6:58. Phillips won by 2½ lengths over Kings School of Canterbury, England, in 6:52.

Paul Brown To Coach Atlanta?

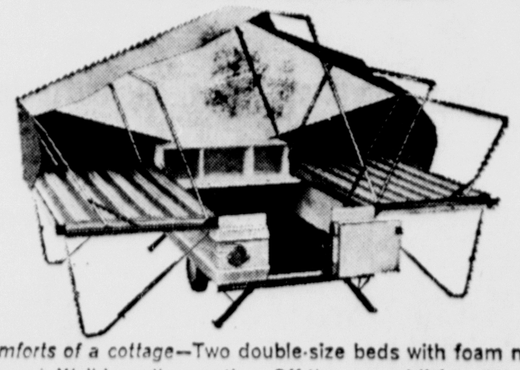

LA JOLLA (AP) — Former Cleveland Browns football coach Paul Brown denied today a published report that he will be coach and general manager of the new Atlanta franchise of the National Football League.

"I haven't had any contact with the new owners," said Brown, a vice president of the Cleveland team in 1946 and coached it to titles in 1950, '54, '55 and '59.

"I have not talked to Rankin Smith nor have I been in Atlanta to talk to the new owners," Brown said. "I've never met them."

REMARKABLE COMEBACK IN NAT'L DECATHLON

Toomey Rallies To Win Title, Russ Hodge 2d

BAKERSFIELD (AP)—School teacher Bill Toomey, with a pair of remarkable comebacks, is the 1965 National AAU decathlon champion and along with hard-luck Russ Hodge, will soon be bound for Russia.

Toomey, 26, who teaches in a Los Angeles high school and competes for the Southern California Striders, came from behind last night to win the 10-event affair with a score of 7,764. Hodge had 7,682.

William Nelson of Mill Valley scored a total of 5,334 points to place ninth after competing in the 10 events.

Hodge, 25, from the Santa Clara Valley Youth Village, was the leader through the two-night event until disaster struck in the pole vault.

The 225-pound Hodge vaulted 12 feet in his first effort, but approaching the 12-6 mark for the first time, pulled up with a badly strained muscle in his right thigh. He dropped out of the pole vault, Toomey won at 13-0 and the difference in points for this event was 82.

Hodge went into the final 1,500-meter run with a lead of 103 points but Toomey washed that out in short order. His 4:24.3 was worth 629 and Hodge, hoping only to finish, scored 444 points with his 4:53.6 time.

The one-two finish earned the pair a position on the United States team which will assemble in Russia for the dual meet at Kiev July 31-Aug. 1.

Toomey's performance was more remarkable because only last June 11-12 in the Southern Pacific AAU meet at Walnut, Calif., he spiked himself in the calf of his right leg so badly that it was feared his season was over.

It was a two-man contest both nights. Don Shy of the Long Beach 49ers Track Club finished third with 7,289; Bill Smith, Pasadena Athletic Association, fourth, 7,156; Larry Melquiond, Santa Barbara, fifth, 6,875, and Bill Ransom of the U. S. Navy at Palo Alto, Calif., sixth with 6,333.

Toomey, who makes his home in Laguna Beach, Calif., attended the University of Colorado. Last year he competed for the Santa Clara Valley Youth Village.

Tribe Resembles 1954 Champions

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Take a look at the Cleveland Indians' brilliant pitching staff and the mind automatically recalls the glory year of 1954.

That was the year in which the Indians stormed to the American League pennant with a record 111 victories. They did it mainly on pitching — with a staff headed by 20-game winners Bob Lemon and Early Wynn backed up by such stars as Mike Garcia, Art Houtteman, Bob Feller and Hal Newhouser.

It'll be a while until the experts rate the current staff over that fabulous staff of '54, but the fact is that Sonny Siebert, Ralph Terry, Luis Tiant and Sam McDowell & Co., are carving heir own niche in Cleveland history.

The current staff has similar strength-in-depth with Siebert at 9-3 and a 2.60 earned run average, Terry at 8-3 and 2.68, Tiant at 7-3 and 3.44 and McDowell at 9-4 and 2.30. It leads the A. L. in shutouts with eight and with 503 strikeouts threatens the major league record of 1162 strikeouts set by the 1954 Cleveland staff.

Siebert scored his third consecutive victory and the Indians gained their 17th win in 20 games last night with a 7-2 decision over the Washington Senators. In a year and a half against the Senators, Siebert has yielded just five earned runs in 45 1-3 innings for an 0.99 ERA. He has struck out 55 batters and allowed only 26 hits.

He fanned 11 and was nicked for five hits, including Ken McMullen's homer behind a seven-hit attack that included three singles by Max Alvis and Leon Wagner's 13th homer. Alvis also scored from first base on an infield error. The victory increased the Indians' first-place lead to a full game over the idle Minnesota Twins and Chicago White Sox.

The Baltimore Orioles shaded the New York Yankees 4-3 and the Detroit Tigers edged out the Boston Red Sox 2-1 in other A. L. games.

The 'Spitball' Causing Furor In National League; Ruling Needed

CONNOLLY

That old wheeze, "What's good for the goose, is good for the gander," aptly applies to the present furor over the frequent charges that some pitchers are using the outlawed "spitball." And it seems to have started a cold war, at least in the National League, the likes of which has never before darkened the unsullied halls of the national pasttime.

Abie's Irish Rose was a laughter in its day, but it only provoked a snicker in comparison with the comedy provided by the "spitter." The umps, the coaches, and even the customers are being amused. And it really isn't that funny, Magee.

GENE MAUCH, that bright young sophisticate who manages the Phils, got into the act recently when he clowned as third base coach to try and detect when Giant pitcher Bob Shaw was using the "spitball." Thirteen times Mauch yelled "robber" and called to see the baseball, and 13 times the umpires ruled he was wrong.

Babe Pinelli, retired National League umpire, has the most sensible view of the ruckus. He blames the whole fuss on pitcher Lew Burdette, righthander with the Phils.

"IF BURDETTE had kept quiet and not volunteered to teach so many pitchers how to throw the moist ball, it may never have been revived," explains Pinelli.

But, according to Babe, Lew likes and thrives on controversy. And he gets it every time he takes his turn on the mound. No ump yet has admitted the "spitball' is being used. They sidestep the fuss and wisely so. After all, what is so terrible about the "spitter" and why was it outlawed?

"IF IT IS SO dangerous as to be barred, how come no one has been hurt by it?" asks Babe.

The idea of the National League knowing the "spitter" is being used and taking no official action seems silly, confusing, and a little hard to understand.

Umpires hesitate at taking the responsibility for detecting the "spitball" because all evidence of the "spitter" disappears when contact is made, either by the glove of the catcher or the bat of the hitter.

HALF THE time a "spitball" pitcher decoys the batter into its possible use. To a pitcher, the intelligent type like Bob Shaw, the psychological effect is better than the pitch itself.

Unless the league takes a definite stand on the use of the "spitball," the umps will lose whatever self respect they now enjoy and the "alibi Ike" hitters will be able to keep their excuse for yelping when they look bad on a pitch.

Johnson Top Scorer In Cage League

Steve Johnson scored 20 points for the Indians Wednesday night in Drake High School Summer Basketball League action but his fine effort went for naught as the Wolves came out on the winning side, 57-47. Kevin Gonzales led the Wolves' attack with 14 points.

In other Tuesday and Wednesday action, the Pirates topped the Bulldogs 29-20, with Bob Tobin of the Pirates and Rich Schau of the Bulldogs each scoring 10 points; Schafer's Ice Cream tipped the Trojans 45-40, Russ Smith hitting 15 points for Schafer's and Bill Muth 17 for the Trojans.

The Tigers nudged the Wildcats 42-38, with Joel Black meshing 16 points for the Tigers and Ceasarino Bornia 17 for the Wildcats; and the Pelicans whipped the Parrots 38-29, Dave Sutten and Hal Orr scoring 12 for the Pelicans and Rich Allen 10 for the Parrots.

Games are played Tuesday and Wednesday nights, 7, 8 and 9 o'clock in the Drake High School gym. They are open to the public, free of charge.

Legion '9' Faces Busy Weekend

It will be a busy time for the San Rafael Wilkins Post 37 American Legion baseball team which will play three games within the next three days.

Monday San Rafael treks to the Vacaville Medical Center diamond to play the Vacaville Legion team in a league game starting at 2 p.m.

Dave Beswick, former Marin Catholic star now playing at University of Santa Clara, doubled home the first run in the opening inning and then scored the second run in the third inning. He had singled and then scored on a double by Bob Lombardi. Linescore of the game:

Girls Share Symphony Guild's Scholarship

Pianist Claudia Leigh Jacobs and clarinetist Lois Marie Clymer will share the Symphony Guild of Marin's $500 scholarship this year.

The girls, both 17, were named winners by Sandor Salgo, musical director and conductor of the Marin Symphony, after auditions in the Corona Anderson room of St. Paul's Church in San Rafael. The room is named for the late Mrs. Berrien Anderson, a former president of the guild.

Claudia, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Jacobs of San Rafael, was graduated last month from Dominican Upper School, where she studied with Faith France. She will enter Oberlin Conservatory of Music in September. She was the winner of Marin Music Chest scholarships in 1963 and 1964.

Lois, daughter of Robert J. Clymer, is a junior at Tamalpais High School and has had two Mill Valley Parent - Teacher Assn. scholarships. She studies with Donald Carroll in San Francisco.

The first plane to fly from the Pacific to Atlantic in 1911 transversing the southern transcontinental route took six months compared to a recent jet record along the same route of about three and one-half hours.

Homestead Sanitary Budget Goes Down

Homestead Valley Sanitary District directors Wednesday adopted a fiscal budget of $20,000, a reduction of $6,500 from fiscal 1965. Tax rate is expected to remain at 28 cents per $100 assessed valuation, reported chairman Warren I. Jacobs.

Reason for the drop in budget, Jacobs explained, is that last year the district had to pay its share for the new centrifuge at the Mill Valley treatment plant. There is no such charge this year.

On-Deck School

PADUCAH, Ky. (AP)—There's something new in job training—a vocational school course for deckhands. Three major barge companies in this Ohio River city need 50 to 100 new deckhands every year.

Marinite At 70th Reunion

By MOLLY MARIN

Mrs. Ernest A. Evans, who will be 92 in September, is home in Mill Valley after attending the 70th reunion of her class at Mount Holyoke College in South Hadley, Mass., where she marched in the alumnae parade. She left by plane on May 30 for Ridgefield, Conn., to visit some cousins, who drove her to Mount Holyoke. Starting on a Friday morning, she attended every event through baccalaureate Sunday morning and commencement Sunday afternoon.

"There were five of my class present," reports Lettie Evans, "and four of us marched in the parade. One of the things we were most impressed with was the assignment to each of us of a young student who carried a camp stool so that we could sit down every time the parade stopped. It was a wonderful experience because traveling is made so easy nowadays," she said.

Before returning home Mrs. Evans stopped to visit friends in Boston, Troy, Ohio, where she was born, and Indianapolis.

"Everybody thinks I look better than I did before I went away," she laughed.

MANY FAMILIES in Mill Valley will be busy with activities at the new Mill Valley Community and Youth Center and the Mill Valley Tennis Club over the long weekend. Among those taking a leading part in the three-day celebration marking the opening of the center on Project 17 will be the John Finns III and their daughter Ferris — all of whom have taken an important part in it ever since it was planned.

The James Rutledges, as social chairmen for the Mill Valley Tennis Club, will be occupied with details of the barbecue being held at the clubhouse tomorrow starting at 4 p.m. Expected to attend are 75 members and guests. Informal events in swimming and tennis will be features.

A large family group gathering will be the picnic on the Fourth in Homestead Valley's Stolte Grove. Planning to attend with their families are the Kenyon Spaldings, Tal Childers, Fred Peters and Irvin Dowds.

Another attraction for many families will be the little league games at the Mill Valley ball park. Among those involved will be the J. Alfred Riders, since Dr. Rider manages the Mill Valley Giants team. Larry Brink, manager of the Mill Valley Realtors team, will not be present, as he and his wife left Wednesday for a week in Spain and a week in Switzerland.

Among those going out of town for celebrations are the Peter Behrs, who will go to the John Kelly ranch at Nicasio, and the William A. Hamiltons, who are joining friends in San Francisco.

CELEBRATING AN OLD fashioned Fourth on the fifth are Strawberry Cove Yacht Club members who plan a cook-out on a tide-lot island in Strawberry Canal. Undaunted by the lack of a clubhouse, vice-commodore George Lopes has organized the club juniors who have been gathering driftwood which they have fashioned into rough tables and benches for the outing. The yacht club's dinghy will transport the participants to the narrow island. An early supper is planned; then the party will have a good vantage point for watching the fireworks display in Sausalito.

Dr. Robert C. Cogswell Jr., commodore of the Strawberry Cove Yacht Club, and Mrs. Cogswell will be on deck for the fun. The party will also serve to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Warren Simpson who have recently moved to a new home on East Strawberry Drive. They have lived in Tiburon the past year, and are former residents of Nevada. Planning to attend the informal affair are Mrs. Peter Humphrey, the Robert Allens, Walter Posts, Owen Carstarphens, Donald de Gellers, George Shermans, Arno Raynors and Charles Partridges.

SEVERAL FAMILIES in Sausalito are planning a nautical Fourth of July weekend, weather permitting.

Dr. and Mrs. Emmet L. Rixford will follow their usual custom of taking a party on their boat, the "Annie Too," for luncheon to Jack London Square in Oakland. Afterward they will go to the Marina in San Francisco to watch the fireworks. The Rixfords have just returned from New York, where Dr. Rixford was a delegate to the medical convention.

Mrs. John Koenig Jr. is planning a Bay cruise and birthday dinner this evening for her husband aboard their new sailboate, the "Tabasco," with about eight guests invited. On the Fourth the Koenigs and their three boys will join the Peter Mohlers and their three boys of Mill Valley and the James Enzenspergers and their two sons at a barbecue followed by watching fireworks at the Sausalito home of the Enzenpergers.

Glad to spend a quiet holiday weekend will be the George M. Eickmeyers who have just returned to Sausalito from Denver. They went there for a convention of the Electrical Apparatus Services Association and experienced two tornados, an earthquake and the most disasterous flood in the history of the city.

MRS. LEONARD S. WOOD was hostess today at a foursome luncheon at her home in Sausalito. Guests will be Mesdames John Koenig Sr., George Ashley and Sylvester McAtee.

NEIGHBORS FROM Corinthian Island, "Babe" Lamerdin and Eugene Vigno will be aboard Wally Nickell's Santana when she sails for Honolulu on the Trans-Pacific Yacht Club Race leaving San Pedro harbor Sunday, flying the San Francisco Yacht Club burgee. The Vignos are enjoying a visit with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle Becker and their children, Sylvia, 3, and Tom, 7. The Becker family has returned after three years in Boston, where Carilsle obtained a master's degree in landscape gardening from the school of design, Harvard University. They hope to make a permanent home in the Bay Area.

AT THEIR TERRA LINDA home on Friday Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stevenin entertained friends at a bon voyage dinner party honoring Chaplain and Mrs. Byron E. Eshelman of San Quentin, who will leave for London on July 9, where he will study for three weeks at Mansfield College, Oxford.

Chaplain and Mrs. Eshelman will join a traveling seminar July 28 to visit correctional facilities in France, Germany, Sweden and Denmark. The tour includes several days at the Third United Nations Congress on Prevention of Crime and Treatment of Offenders in Stockholm.

On their return in mid-August the Eshelmans will visit the New York World's Fair and then proceed to Boston for the 95th Congress of Correction of the American Correctional Assn. Chaplain Eshelman will preside at the all-Congress prayer breakfast during the Congress of Correction at the Statler Hilton Hotel.

ENJOYING THEIR beach house at Aptos until Sunday are Mrs. Eleanor Brown and her 14 year old son, Charles.

Proudly displaying the second place plaque won by their 1934 Rolls Royce at the concours at Harrah's Lake Tahoe are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davies of Belvedere. Their son, Jim, has returned to California Polytechnic College at San Luis Obispo for the summer session. At the end of July he will fly to San Diego to join the Hank Grandins aboard their yacht Amcrita and will be a member of their crew on the homeward leg of the coastal

FEATURED THIS SATURDAY
This weekend we observe our most important patriotic holiday—Independence Day. The Marin Magazine, accordingly, has selected as a fitting subject for a special feature in its issue tomorrow the sometimes controversial Daughters of the American Revolution, and particularly its El Marinero Chapter of Marin. You'll learn how the DAR of today feels about patriotism, and also some of the many other interests of the organization.
If Independence Day remains a major holiday, there was a time when it was an even bigger event—or at least, noisier. In tomorrow's I-J supplement, historian Florence Donnelly with the help of pioneer resident James Leach recalls something of what the Fourth of July was like in early-day San Anselmo. Illustrating that story will be a collection of rare old photographs of Hub City celebrations belonging to Laura Pettijohn.

A LUNCHEON Wednesday and dinner dance at the Alta Mira Hotel in Sausalito on July 9 are the latest in the round of parties honoring Kathleen Mary Borla. Kathleen, who is the daughter of Theodore H. Borla of Sausalito and the late Kathleen Kelly Borla, will become the bride of Harvey H. Mains Jr. of San Jose on July 17.

The luncheon Wednesday was given by Mrs. Paul Case at her home in Sausalito, and the dinner dance on July 9 will be given by Mrs. George Black of Detroit, a cousin of the late Mrs. Borla. Some 40 family friends and young people have been invited.

Tomorrow Mrs. Joseph Applebaum and her daughter, Susan, of Novato will honor Kathleen at a bridesmaids' luncheon at the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco. Other parties have included a bridesmaids' luncheon and shower given at her home in Sausalito by Mrs. Thomas May and a luncheon hosted by Mrs. M. W. Girard and her daughter Carolyn of Oakland.

McAteer Right; Computer Reapportionment 'Nutty'

We agree.

The three San Francisco attorneys and the bio-mathematician who concocted the computer approach hail it as "utterly impersonal, completely mathematical and pure as d r i v e n snow."

Utterly impersonal and completely mathematical it is. And therein lies its flaw.

Senators should represent more than just numbers in the state senate. They should represent people with a community of interest.

The computer plan comes up with such bizarre arrangements as a senate district partly in San Francisco and partly in Contra Costa. Can there be a community of interest there? It is hard to see how.

"Pure as driven snow," they say.

We could agree only that it is pure hokum.

Senator Teale's committee worked out the only sensible plan for reapportionment—as nearly sensible, that is, as the supreme court is likely to permit.

It realigns California's 40 senatorial districts according to population and still retains a semblance of a community of interest within the districts.

This wasn't easy in a state so diverse as California where agriculture, lumbering, petroleum, manufacturing, sparsely populated mountain counties and densely populated urban areas are all involved.

But Senator Teale and his committee did just about as good a job as could possibly be done.

The pity is that politics—and the fear of some legislators that they might redistrict themselves out of office — caused the legislature to split and approve NO reapportionment plan at all.

The best the court could do now is to take something like Senator Teale's plan and order its implementation.

Once more, the situation cries for the adoption of Senator Dirksen's proposed constitutional amendment which would permit the people of each state to vote apportionment of one house of their legislature on a basis other than population alone.

Wonderful Long Evenings

These long evenings are grand. We can be out and do a spot of lazy gardening or just sit and listen to the birds' late evening murmuring, or the frog chorus from the canal.

As darkness falls, we can extend our outdoor stay with the addition of a sweater. We may perhaps hear a fog horn on the Bay or, maybe, just the distant rumble of a giant trailer rig on 101.

We speak in hushed, quiet voices, so as not to spoil the magic of the hour. An owl's throaty call rings across our tiny valley to be answered by one on this side. It is the witching hour and we are slaves of the moment.

Two Trees In One

What do the Oregon Myrtle and California Bay trees have in common? Both grow in Marin, for one thing. They would be pretty hard to separate for both are names for the same tree.

In Oregon numerous shops line the highway, selling objects made of myrtlewood. It is prized for its fine grain.

In Marin the bay leaves are used in cooking savory stews or veal roasts or what-have-you. If permitted to grow without competition, it becomes a shade tree of fine proportions.

Private Employment Firms In Business To Make Money

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—One contributing factor to the high cost of government is the "silly survey," in which most government agencies have engaged for a good many years.

The Fair Employment Practices Commission has come up with a lulu in its survey of private employment agencies throughout the state, apparently made in an effort to show that the private agency is not doing its part to kowtow to the minority groups.

The FEPC found, according to its announcement, that "most private agencies are making only minimum efforts to provide equal opportunities in referral and placement for job seekers of minority backgrounds."

Wording of the agency statement attempts to portray this situation as something evil, or at least out-of-step with the unpopular effort of the state administration to hand all it can to the minorities on a silver platter.

THE PRIVATE employment agency scarcely needs defense, as these business concerns have survived the antipathy of government for a good many years, in fact, ever since the public employment agencies were started at taxpayers' expense back in the 1930s and attempted to monopolize the job placement business.

It might be news to the FEPC that the private employment agency is a business enterprise which has not been forced to exist on government subsidy. The primary reason the private agency has continued to exist is that it has been able to supply the employer with the kind of help he wants, rather than what he may be forced to take from state referrals.

The private agencies are in business to make money, and not from some altruistic motive engendered by a liberal political administration. In fact, they have to make money to meet the expenses of their own organization, such as personnel, rent, office expenses, taxes, etc., aside from a decent profit.

However, neither the public employment agency nor the FEPC would recognize these little items, which in their cases are generously cared for by the taxpayer.

IN OTHER WORDS, the private employment agency is dealing in a commodity somewhat hard to come by these days. The commodity is competent help.

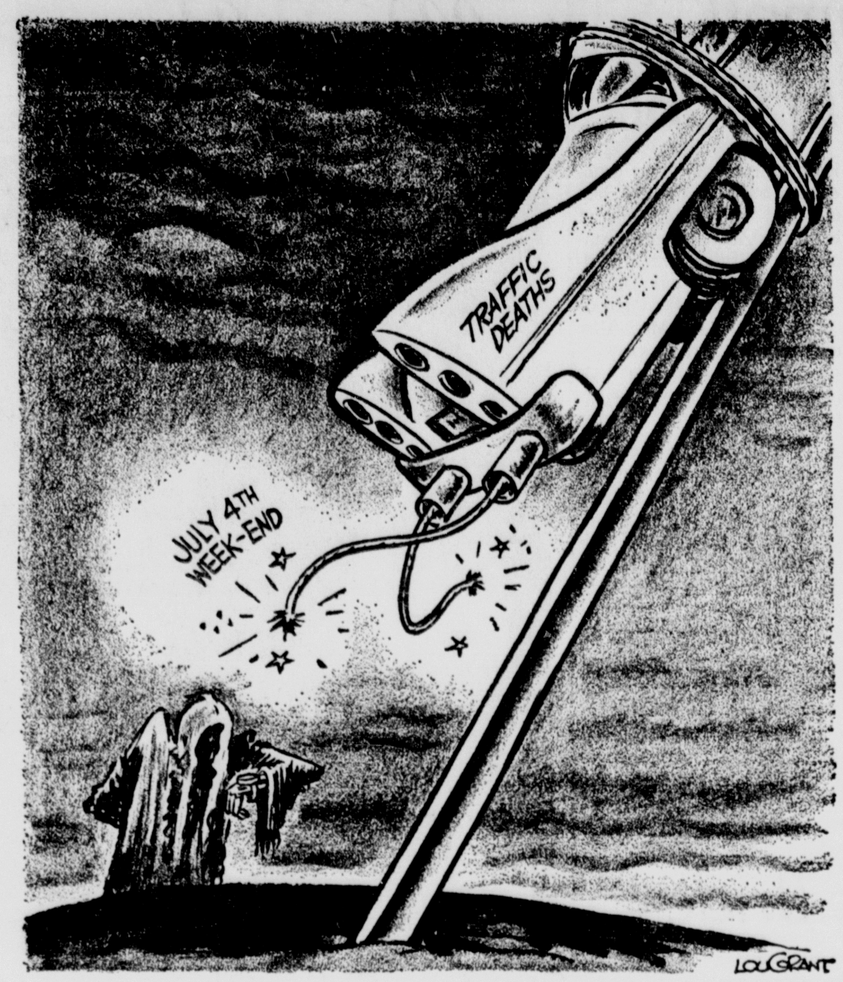

Very few agencies would have the time or the manpower, let alone the inclination, to seek out the member of a minority race for referral purposes unless they happened to have an application on file, in which event the minority applicant would get the same treatment as the majority as far as the agency is concerned. No agency could expect to survive if it followed the practice of referring people to jobs who did not happen to be qualified.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

United Nations Education Needed

Editor, Independent-Journal:

This past week several Marin residents participated in the week-long WAWF and UWF annual meetings whose purpose is to strengthen the U. N.

The week's activities as reported in the press and on radio and TV of the Federalists' meetings as well as the U. N. 20th Commemorative Session afforded the antagonists of the U. N. in Marin an opportunity to see what we stand for. The purpose of the U. N. flags sponsored by the Federalists in the Marin schools has been just another means of education, not to substitute loyalty but understanding, not allegiance but awareness of the reality that the U. N. is part of our history and has to be understood. . . .

It was the pleasure of the Marin representatives to have Congressman Don Clausen hear General Romulo at the opening banquet which afforded him an opportunity to hear what we're for. . . .

Reports From South Sought

Editor, Independent-Journal:

We have been very much disturbed by reports of violence in Mississippi in connection with arrests of civil rights workers, and wonder whether you could get direct, first-hand information from a reporter from the Independent-Journal who is now in Mississippi.

I have not seen anything from Mr. Coppock since his arrest, and perhaps you are not in touch with him, but if it is possible we would very much like to read what he has to say.

We do not, most certainly, agree with the writer from Corte Madera who thought that Mr. Coppock should "stay there"; it is obvious that Mississippi needs "immigration from the United States" as much as any place in the country, but Marin County doesn't have such a high standard of citizenship that we can spare men like Mr. Coppock. . . .

Some of us who are older and who remember the early days of Nazi Germany are beginning to fear that we are ourselves like the "good" Germans who stood aside and tacitly condoned the mistreatment of Jews and others because it didn't seem to concern them personally. . . .

I wish to express my gratitude to Western Greyhound Lines personnel for my beautiful wrist watch, awarded to me for 20 years of safe driving, and including the many other nice events awarded along with it. I sincerely thank you.

Also, I wish to express my appreciation to my many friends with whom I have become acquainted on account of being a WGL bus driver. I was so happy to receive so many nice congratulation cards and real nice letters.

Many thanks for my Bouquet in the I-J dated June 26. I will treasure all of these nice remembrances and my sincere best wishes to all.

Teen-Ager Upset By Dog's Death

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I read the article in the paper last night (June 29) about the man who went on vacation and returned to find that his Labrador Retriever had been destroyed. I think six days is not enough time to keep a dog at the pound. I think it is cruel. They should at least extend it to two weeks and then the dogs would have a better chance of being claimed by their owners or adopted.

I can understand how that man felt because I have a dog of my own and would feel awful if anything like this ever happened to it. I hate to think of how many times this must have happened to someone's loyal pet.

It doesn't seem like too much to ask that man's best friend be given a fair chance and an extra week to live.

Dixie Eyewitness Reports Requested

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Is it not the function of the press to give us straight, factual information of happenings in crucial situations?

If so, why resort to second-hand information, or none at all, when Bob Coppock is on the scene? Even though he is in Mississippi as a private individual, he might still, as a reporter, give us an unexpurgated account of what is happening during his stay in the South.

Some of our friends and neighbors here in Marin County are on the scene, and it would seem that an adequate coverage by an Independent-Journal reporter who is one of them is to be expected.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

IN THE LONG-AGO days when the Dodgers still played their own brand of baseball in Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, there was one faithful fan who stood outside the park for hours before the gates opened, game after game, only to sit deliberately behind a big post after he had gained admittance. "Why?" asked a baffled usher finally. The fan explained calmly, "I loathe baseball!"

THE DRIVER OF A huge trailer stopped at Grand Canyon and stared first at his empty trailer, then at the foot of the canyon far below. "Golly," he mused. "My wife sure got out on the wrong side of bed this morning!"

DURING A SERMON in Sussex, a baby started to wail and his angry mother carried it toward the exit. "Stop," commanded the minister. "Come back. Your baby isn't disturbing me a bit." To which the mother called back, "Oh, 'e ain't, ain't 'e? Well, you're disturbin' 'im!"

Communist Chinese Red Faced Over Failure To Get Conference

WASHINGTON — The cables from Algiers describe the Red Chinese delegates as looking pretty dour and not very inscrutable.

And for good reasons.

Peking fought to the end against the collapse of its much-wanted Afro-Asian Conference and grimly accepted a postponement until next November only when it saw that the conference steering committee was going to vote unanimously to delay.

OBVIOUSLY the shaky status of the post-Ben Bella regime in Algeria provided a valid reason for calling off this glittering gathering of some 64 African and Asian countries for which Chou En-lai had been pushing so hard so long.

But most of the Afro-Asian nations are plainly relieved; the Chinese are annoyed no end.

What has happened is this:

THE CHINESE Communists were intent upon using the Afro-Asian nations as tools of Peking to harass the U. S., to berate the Soviet Union and to further Communist revolution wherever possible.

As this purpose became clearer, the Afro-Asians decided they weren't going to be used.

Result: A stunning defeat for Chinese diplomacy.

One of Peking's prime objectives was to deny to Russia any voice at the Afro-Asian meetings on the ground that it is "a white, European power" although four-fifths of Russia lies in Asia. It had persuaded Ben Bella, as the head of the host country, to withhold an invitation to Moscow. But the steering committee decided that the postponed conference should have "the widest possible representation," thus foreshadowing invitations to both Russia and Malaysia.

Further, the maneuvering which led to rejecting Peking's pressure to convene the conference on schedule, despite the Algerian uncertainties, brought into being a substantial non-Communist, anti-Chinese coalition of Asian states including India, Japan, Thailand, the Philippines and the newly-moderate government of Ceylon.

AT THE SAME time all the African members of the British Commonwealth were the first to counter Peking's plea to go ahead—this after all 12 of them, including leftist-leaning Ghana, had joined in setting up the "peace mission" to bring the Vietnamese war to the conference table.

It is increasingly evident that many, perhaps most, of the African countries are wise to the ways Red China has tried to use them for Chinese purposes—to isolate the Soviet Union, to align them behind China's plans for new "wars of liberation" and to spread hatred of the United States.

The Africans are obviously getting fed up with Chou En-lai's unsubtle efforts to win their support and simultaneously to promote their overthrow. In his latest visit to Tanzania he again preached the doctrine that "Africa is ripe for revolution."

THE AFRICAN leaders don't want any more revolution since the revolutions would be against them.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

3 'Sleepers' Pass In Military Bill

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — There are three "sleepers" in the House-passed $45,188,000,000 military appropriations bill of far-reaching significance and potentiality.

IN EFFECT, they give President Lyndon B. Johnson a blank check to wage all-out war and provide funds vastly exceeding the $45,188,000,000 with which to do it—without further recourse to Congress, as follows:

1. Section 512 — Empowers the president to spend these vast sums at any rate he deems necessary — "in one month or in one week, if required for the nation's defense." Under the Anti-Deficiency Act, government agencies are limited to expending their annual appropriations on a quarterly basis. This restriction is waived for the armed forces by Section 512.

2. Section 512 (c)—Authorizes calling into active service an unspecified number of "additional forces to meet national defense requirements."

3. Enactment of this appropriation measure will actually make available some $75 billion to the Defense Department in the next 12 months. The other $29 billion is unexpended carryovers from previous appropriations, of which approximately $9 billion is "legally unobligated."

EXTRAORDINARY thing about these unnoticed "sleepers" is that they slipped through the House without a word of discussion or dissent.

After several hours of desultory consideration, the chamber approved this gigantic appropriation measure (slightly less than half the entire $99 billion national budget) by a vote of 407 to 0.

Also unmentioned were the following directly related, highly pertinent facts:

The war in Viet Nam is now costing $20 million a week — solely for the maintenance and operations of U. S. forces, Army, Navy, air. This is at a rate of more than $1 billion a year.

THESE HEAVY outlays will double by September as U. S. forces there are steadily increased.

In addition, economic and military aid to South Viet Nam is now running at $2 million a day; around $725 million a year. This also is expected to increase, particularly military aid for expanded South Viet Nam forces.

While the three momentous "sleepers" whizzed through the House unchallenged and unpublicized, no secrecy was made of them.

Rep. George Mahon, D-Tex., chairman of the appropriations committee, spelled them out frankly and clearly in his detailed floor presentation of the bill.

HE MADE NO reference to the intensifying Viet Nam conflict, but he plainly implied that was the reason for these exceptional provisions. Said Mahon:

"Everyone knows that we live in a dangerous world and that the future is unpredictable. No one, not even the president, who is fortified by a staff of advisers and assistants, can foresee with certainty what the future holds in the field of international relations.

"Under the Anti-Deficiency Act, normally a government department must expend funds provided for the year on a quarterly basis, and may not exceed the rate of expenditures in one quarter over the pro rata part that would be assigned thereto. Section 512 provides that the president could approve the expenditure of all the funds in this bill in one quarter, in one month, or in one week if required for the nation's defense.

"Section 512 (c) provides that additional forces can be called into service and paid, even on a deficiency basis, to meet national defense requirements. These sections create tremendous flexibility which we deem desirable in this unpredictable world."

Retired Baby Sitter Pilots Parking Lot For Sausalito

WE CALLED ON a retired baby sitter the other day in Sausalito who punches a time clock, takes in dimes and wears a nautical cap for her city job in the old pilot house at parking lot no. 3.

She is Mrs. Mabel Vandemark, 62, parking lot attendant. "You pronounce it just like it sounds," she said, "Van-de-mark."

"I used to be a telephone operator," she advised, "and my former husband and I used to run a bus business in the East Bay. I drove a bus.

"I SAW IN the paper they wanted people. I didn't have anything to do but babysitting and you can't depend on that," said Mrs. Vandemark, as she clicked her electrical clock. "That will be 10 cents please," she told a customer and took it in the window.

"It's hard for anybody my age to get a job," she continued, "and I do have to work."

She likes the people, she said. "They ask all kinds of questions, how to get to Los Angeles, Monterey and how to get to Mill Valley, San Rafael, Muir Woods and Richardson Bay Bridge. One man asked me, 'Have you come from Boston?' I told him, no, I was born in San Mateo and lived around the bay all my life."

MRS. VANDEMARK, who lives in San Rafael, wore a long blue coat, keeps her graying hair tucked under her cap and, quite apparently, runs a taut ship.

"I'm very grateful to the City of Sausalito for the employment," she said. She added that some of her colleagues are in their 70s, that Sundays are the heaviest days, from 3 in the afternoon.

"Ten cents, thank you," she told a tourist in a long car.

AFTER TAKING OUR leave of Mrs. Van-Dee-Mark, we checked the bend in Bridgeway which seems to get the most foot wear and found artist Enid Foster meandering to the library with her pug dog, Bertie. She related she had most recently done an art exhibit on boxes on Father's Day and had already sold the one of President Johnson.

Asked if dogs are permitted in the library, she replied, "They didn't use to but they do now."

She mentioned there had been a leak in the Del Monte Hotel last night and water ran down into S.S. Del Monte Liquor Store below.

CHECKING WITH OWNER Walter Berkeley, he said there was no damage. "Some guy went away and left his kitchen sink full of dishes with the stopper in it and the darned water began dripping." The water ran down over one of the life savers hanging on the wall.

We dropped by to see Willie Chee at Marin Fruit and Grocery. "He's taking a nap," said his son, Nathan. Asked what Willie was doing on the fourth,his son replied, "Working as usual."

CORRECTION: Last week we noted that skateboards have been outlawed in Sausalito. An ordinance has been introduced to make it unlawful for skateboard riders to block streets, sidewalks, stairways or crosswalks and to ride them on same. It will be discussed by the city council July 13 and the ordinance be up for adoption. It takes 30 days after that for the ordinance to become effective.

WE HAVE MET a lot of dogs in our time. But, until Wednesday, we had never met a Rhodesian ridge back who went riding on a pile of red sweaters in a bicycle basket.

Dana Africa, owner of the Rhodesian named Rhody, said Rhody prefers riding in the bike basket to running downtown beside her brother, Kit, and she. Rhody can also walk on her hind legs. The dog, it seems doesn't mind hills and one of them she sails down is steep Richardson Street. Asked how this works, Dana said, "she leans."

ART BUCHWALD

Life Not So Simple In D.C.

Trying To Figure Labels

WASHINGTON — A whole new set of terms is now in order concerning the positions people have taken in Washington in the last few months. During the Cuban crisis the town was divided between the Doves and the Hawks and this made life very simple for everybody.

But as our foreign position becomes more complex, so do the designations of people who are involved.

FOR EXAMPLE, an ultra-conservative Hawk is someone who wants to bomb Hanoi and Peking with atomic weapons.

A moderate Hawk is someone who wants to bomb Hanoi with conventional weapons and Peking with the hydrogen bomb.

A liberal Hawk is someone who wants to bomb only North Viet Nam, including Hanoi, but reserves the right to pursue Communist planes into China if it becomes necessary.

An ultra-conservative Dove, on the other hand, believes we should bomb all of North Viet Nam except Hanoi, and increase our ground commitment to show the North Vietnamese we mean business.

A MODERATE DOVE believes we should bomb only the Viet Cong in South Viet Nam and fight for what we now hold until we can get negotiations.

A liberal Dove is one who doesn't think we should get out of Viet Nam, but also feels there is no reason to be there in the first place.

Then there are the Frogs. The Frog designation came into being when President Johnson told a story about a farmer who was kept awake by frogs croaking in a pond all night long.

The farmer finally drained the pond and found only two frogs.

THEREFORE, according to the president, any senator who disagrees with the administration's Viet Nam policy, and says so out loud, is a well-meaning, but badly misinformed Bullfrog.

If we only had Viet Nam to worry about, the labeling would be easy. But there are many people in Washington who agree with what the president is doing in Viet Nam, but disagree with what he's doing in the Dominican Republic. There are also many people who agree with what he's doing in the Dominican Republic, but disagree with what he's doing in Viet Nam.

People who are for a strong American policy in the Dominican Republic are Sharks. And those who believe we should never have sent troops into Santo Domingo are Sardines.

SO IT ISN'T strange to have people in Washington who are known as Hawk-Sharks, Sardine-Hawks, Shark-Doves and Dove-Frogs.

Of course, one of the problems is that not everybody stays with his label. One day an administration official may sound like a Hawk and the next day sound like a Dove. The State Department people started off as Sharks in the Dominican Republic, then became Sardines and now are trying to be Doves.

THE PRESIDENT maintains he is neither Hawk nor Dove, Shark nor Sardine, and certainly not a Frog. He sees himself as just a large benign Eagle, flying around with an olive branch in his mouth and a bomb in each claw, willing to sit down with any bird who is willing to sit down with him.

COUNTY COMMENT

By WILLIAM D. (BILL) FUSSELMAN

Voters Should Decide On County Parks And Recreation District

FUSSELMAN

IN THIS COLUMN last Friday the question was posed, "Should Marin spend tax money to acquire privately owned land throughout the county for parks and/or recreational areas (to be used principally by people from outside the county) and assume the responsibility of administration and maintenance?" This can produce many answers, both pro and con.

There are those who are highly enthusiastic about the whole proposition of acquiring more and more such areas, regardless of who pays the bills. Their basic beliefs certainly must be admired. Then there are others who approach the matter from a belief in financial gain to the county from the money to be spent by tourists and visitors. Such spending, in many places, is one of the mainstays of the local economy. This, of course, is true in the counties north of Marin.

LOCAL AREAS where recreation districts have been formed and are being taxed for their own use and benefit should be considered in reviewing the whole problem. At the moment, I can think of four and the amounts of their budgets for the fiscal year 1964-65, just ended. They are as follows: Marinwood, $51,060; Terra Linda, $68,100; Strawberry, $26,258, and Marin City, $1,350. And, of course, many cities are financing recreation programs of their own, with tax money.

FOR MANY YEARS I have urged that the formation of a county-wide parks and recreation district be submitted to the voters and taxpayers. If care were taken to place all phases frankly before the people, there would then, by the result of the election, be no question of the propriety (if the election carried) of setting up a yearly budget to do these things that are being recommended by the present parks and recreation commission.

The commission which would be established under such a procedure would be able to carry forward their plans by setting up a budget themselves, independently of the supervisors and within clearly prescribed dollar limits. This would eliminate the confused, tangled situation that exists now. A decision by the voters (for or against) would in itself answer the question posed.

GOP Leaders Say Economy Is In Danger

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican leaders in Congress say there are "danger signals" in the nation's economy and accuse the Johnson administration of "giving glib and pat answers to serious and involved questions."

At a joint news conference yesterday, House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford said price and wage increases in spite of continued substantial unemployment are creating "distinct inflationary pressures."

Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper, R-Iowa, said the administration seems to be suggesting that anything wrong in the economy stems from a speech by William McChesney Martin, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board. Martin said there were some similarities between the present economy and that which preceded the 1929 crash. Martin also said there were differences.

'Bird In Art' Project Set

Marin Museum Assn. will open Tuesday an exhibition of "The Bird in Art" at the Trinity Lutheran Church, 333 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael, as a pilot project for the Children's Art Museum.

The exhibition features works by nationally famous artists, including Diego Rivera. It is directed by Sue Rannells, who arrived here last month after working at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City, and Mrs Martha Stutsman, secondary school art teacher in Vallejo.

The exhibition will run through July 31.

For 7 bright talents, 7 bronze awards

Take a good look at these young people. We did, in sponsoring the "MOST VALUABLE STAFFER AWARD" program of the American Newspaper Publisher's Association here in Marin.

They look like the future to us—and the awards and the future couldn't be in better hands.

Each of these young people was chosen, under this national program, for making the most valuable contribution to his or her school newspaper during the 1964-65 school year.

They were dedicated, talented . . . and hard-working. Like good journalists they took the job of communicating the world of school events to their fellows as a challenge. And they went beyond the standards of doing a good job. They excelled.

You can be proud of them, as we are. And proud too, of their journalism instructors who coached and encouraged these talented young people to turn talent into action.

We at the I-J were delighted to put their story in bronze—an engraved plaque for each. But THEY wrote it. And that's the real award.

Basis of the Awards

- Sponsored for all high schools and the College of Marin by the Independent-Journal.
- Student must be a good student, as determined by the faculty or instructor.
- Selected student to be chosen by the school.
- Be a person who has made the greatest contribution to the success of the school newspaper during the school year, regardless of his position . . . setting high standards of personal accomplishment.

To recognize journalistic talent in young people . . . to encourage interest in a newspaper career

Recipe For Glamour

Take one large lot on a Mill Valley hillside, add a view of green valleys and golden hills. Let sit for several years to mature. Then add a well-built 3 bedroom house with a fetching entry courtyard, place rich paneling in the living room, the dining room AND the kitchen. As a base use one large studio-workroom the full length of the upper layer. For garnish, add gold leaf, stained glass, Austrian shades, stone lions, dramatic planters to taste. You'll find this an economical dish costing only $36,000 at

CIRCA 1922 CLASSIC
Best Ross Location

Here is an architect's own home with all the charm and appointments in keeping with the era. The masterful use of woods in the living room, dining room and sitting room, the two large bedrooms, and the solidly-built construction make this a fine home for one who appreciates quality. The low price is because the owner has begun an extensive remodeling project in the kitchen and baths, but was transferred, leaving work unfinished. Once you see this charmer you will immediately envision the great potential, both esthetic and financial, this home offers.

Bootleg Liquor Is Still Problem For U.S. Agents

More than 7,800 individuals were arrested for violations of federal liquor laws during fiscal 1964, says Commerce Clearing House.

The government seized 4,748 distilleries and 6,837 stills in a drive which netted $2.4 million worth of property affected by such liquor.

Although seizures of distilleries, stills, mash and property taken in raids were up from the previous years, the number of individuals arrested was down.

Violations in 14 southern states accounted for more than 90 per cent of the distilleries seized and 85 per cent of the arrests.

In most cases, the 416 moonshiners convicted received long prison sentences.

Looking For 500 Husbands

ZARIA, Nigeria (AP) — Alhaji Saidu Zango, district head of Cabon Gari, urged 500 women assembled outside his office in this northern Nigerian city to "go and marry immediately."

They had been seized by police as prostitutes or for "harboring undesirable elements."

The official said they would be automatically jailed if arrested again.

The Morning Post reported that "the women thanked the district head and promised that they would find men to marry by all means."

In The Bag

LONDON (AP)—An Englishman predicts that by 1975 one fourth of the British tea market will be captured by the tea bag manufacturers. The Englishman is the spokesman for the country's main manufacturers of tea bags.

Girl Is Riding High On Rolls-Royce Story

By ALAN P. CUNNINGHAM

The saga of Georgia Cameron, the girl who loves Rolls-Royces, has entered a new chapter.

Georgia, a Redwood High School student who lives at 7 Oak Avenue, Kentfield, has returned from a trip to Los Angeles where she met—and saw the Rolls-Royce of — television star Gene Barry.

The first part of her story came last month when a San Francisco Rolls-Royce dealer learned of her passion for the English luxury cars and "gave" her one to use as she pleased for a weekend.

It might seem to some people that a weekend like that would have been the livin' end for a girl who worships Rolls-Royces the way her friends admire long-haired English rock 'n' roll singers. But this was not the case.

Her father, writer and public relations man Frank Cameron, had recently sailed from San Francisco to Los Angeles while working on an article about Matson Lines' reinstated overnight cruises. He wanted to take Georgia, but school was still on.

To make this up to her, Cameron took his daughter on the cruise last week. While they were planning the trip, someone at American Broadcasting Co. heard about Georgia's love for Rolls-Royces and how that passion stemmed from watching the ABC program, "Burke's Law."

It didn't take long for the network to arrange a Hollywood meeting between Georgia and her hero — Gene Barry, who plays the millionaire police captain, Burke.

Georgia's first words to Barry, according to her mother, were, "Oh—you're real!"

He autographed several photos for her, then she watched him rehearse for his newest TV series. Later, she saw the Rolls-Royce which belongs to the actor himself and which he drives to the studio daily.

"The fact that he was married and has a 19-year-old son did not dampen her ardor," Mrs. Cameron reported. "She decided he must have been married at age 11."

Georgia reported that there was only one way in which Barry's Rolls was superior to the one which, for three days, had been her own: Barry's had a llama-skin carpet.

On her return, Miss Cameron wrote a letter of thanks to an ABC public relations man in Los Angeles. Noting that her mother had earlier wondered "what she can do for an encore," Georgia wrote:

"Gene Barry was the encore. It was better than the concert."

Georgia is scheduled to appear on the Owen Spann luncheon interview show at 11:30 a.m. Monday on radio KGO. Mrs. Cameron is anxious to find out whether her daughter will tell listeners the same thing she has been saying at the breakfast, lunch and dinner table all week:

"Oh, he's SO cute!"

Eight Lives To Go For Cat

DECATUR, Ill. (AP)—Herbie, the 5-year-old Siamese cat owned by Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Cohn, is walking again after a brush with an auto.

Phillip Mendel, whose car hit the cat, went from house to house until he found the owners.

Dr. J. D. Kerr of an animal hospital said Herbie was suffering from shock and was paralyzed in the hips and legs.

In order to get the cat to walk again, he said, a rope was put around his middle to hold him up. He could use only his front legs at first. As he walked on his front legs, he gradually touched his hind feet to the floor until he started using them.

Dr. Kerr said it was like a child learning to walk.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

'Popularity' Of Diseases Comes And Goes With Time

VAN DELLEN

The popularity of certain diseases comes and goes, especially when the conditions are poorly understood and not fatal. Neurocirculatory asthenia is a good example of a diagnosis that was popular during and immediately after World War I. It also was called effort syndrome and irritable heart of soldiers. Then the condition began to abate and for several decades, physicians seldom made the diagnosis or wrote about the disorder. It is being revived.

This is understandable because it was the name of the malady that was unpopular. There are people who have neurocirculatory asthenia today. The disturbance is now called anxiety neurosis, or psychoneurosis with cardiac manifestations. It is the latter that offers the clue as to why revival is anticipated.

VICTIMS DEVELOP breathlessness and fatigue that is out of proportion to the amount of effort expended. The pulse increases and they complain of palpitation and pain over the left side of the chest. Lightheadedness occurs and the majority sit or lie down to obtain relief. There are obvious signs of nervousness, tremor, and profuse perspiration.

The victims are convinced that something is wrong with the heart but the examination is negative and X-ray and electrocardiogram are normal. They are comfortable when resting and free of tension. It is obvious that they are incapacitated at other times and physicians are convinced they are not fakers or malingerers. These individuals find a diagnosis of "there is nothing wrong" hard to take.

SOME WERE BORN with a constitutional inadequacy and have poor posture, flabby muscles, and a nervous system that overreacts to ordinary stimuli. They avoided strenuous athletics when young and sought light work. Others are given to worry and the adoption of health fads.

Many have a long history of emotional maladjustment with neurotic tendencies. Errors in diagnosis, such as being told that heart trouble exists, is enough to start the ball rolling. Treatment depends upon the basic cause. Psychiatric care helps some, whereas others need a physical fitness program.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics by mail if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

A costume parade for six- to 12-year-old San Anselmans will start at 2 p.m. July 8 at the Ross Valley Savings and Loan Assn. parking lot at San Anselmo Avenue and Woodland Street.

The parade, sponsored by the San Anselmo Parks and Recreation Department, Lions and Rotary clubs, will proceed from the parking lot down San Anselmo Avenue to Sycamore Avenue, then to Madrone Avenue and out Sir Francis Drake Boulevard to Sonoma Avenue and Memorial Park.

Gift certificates will be presented at the park to first, second and third place winners in contests for the most original, ridiculous and best costumes

At first automobile makers frowned on gasoline as the fuel to use. They preferred steam and several cars were built using it.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Press Releases From All Over

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — We read the network press releases:

—"Philip Leacock, producer of 'Gunsmoke' on the CBS television network, was born in London, England."

Which is not far from Paris, France.

—" 'Children are beautiful,' says 'Candid Camera' impresario Allen Funt. 'They're so original, so independent — everything you wish adults were.' "

And impresarios.

And during this time was quite a distance from Chicago (Ill.), San Francisco and Paris (France).

—"If 1964 was the year of the Beatles in America, it will be remembered in England as the year America and (ABC-TV's) 'Shindig' gave them P. J Proby. The argument of which country got the better of the deal is still being waged by fans from both camps."

And will continue to be for the next 10 minutes.

Good thinking.

— "Art Linkletter chuckles over this quote from a youngster on 'Art Linkletter's House Party': 'Men had trouble finding the North Pole, but any husky dog could find it easy.' "

You can't beat that Linkletter sense of humor.

—"Donna Douglas of 'The Beverly Hillbillies' was born in the Louisiana Bayou country. Her home was six miles off the main highway.?"

Remarkable.

CHANNEL SWIM: ABC-TV's "FDR" Documentary Series, about President Franklin D. Roosevelt, presents its concluding segment July 23 — a recollection of his death and its effect . . . The script is by Norman Corwin, and those appearing in sequences filmed especially for "FDR" include Roosevelt's son Elliott; his daughter Anna; his maternal Aunt Laura Delano and former Vice President Henry A. Mrs. LBJ Visits At Hyde Park

HYDE PARK, N.Y. (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson visited the Franklin D. Roosevelt national historic site at Hyde Park, N.Y., yesterday, apparently in connection with the planning of a presidential library for her husband.

MARIN FILM FARE

'Von Ryan's Express' At Hub City

By LESLIE DARD

There is a variety of films playing in Marin this weekend:

TAMALPAIS THEATER

"Von Ryan's Express" is good drama packed with plenty of tension and suspense. It never lets the viewer down.

In 1943, just before Italy is invaded by the Allies, American Air Force Colonel Ryan, played here by Frank Sinatra, is interned in a POW camp, under the command of a Fascist bully.

There he meets the remnants of a crack British regiment under Trevor Howard and antagonizes them by getting overly friendly with the tough camp commandant. By doing this, he earns the nickname Von Ryan, but also procures supplies for the sick and dying in the camp.

The film's principle attraction, a pulse-pounding escape, starts when the prisoners, under Von Ryan, take over a Nazi train and try to run it, bluffing and fighting all the way, to the Swiss border.

LARK THEATER

"The Magnificent Cuckold," is now playing.

Claudia Cardinale and Ugo Tognazzi are paired in the Italian comedy, he as a well-to-do hat manufacturer, she as his beautiful wife.

Tognazzi succumbs to the charms of a friend's wife. He comes home feeling guilty, but amazed at the ease with which he had broken faith with his wife. His feeling of guilt turns to suspicion.

He begins to imagine his wife with a lover, and finally, as the piece de resistance, in a grand orgy.

FAIRFAX THEATER

The tale starts with Janet Leigh, a larcenous young lady, stealing $40,000 and skipping town to be with her lover, John Gavin. She meets up with a motel keeper, a strange and troubled young man who babbles about the problems of his mad mother. Tony Perkins does well in the role.

A much newer film, "The Battle of the Villa Fiorita," starring Maureen O'Hara and Rossano Brazzi is the other feature.

RAFAEL THEATER

Now on screen is the Oscar-winning "Mary Poppins," starring the vivacious Julie Andrews (Best Actress) and Dick Van Dyke.

The enchanting tale takes place about 1910 when a magical governess turns up in answer to specifications by two young Londoners.

NOVATO THEATER

Pretty soon after he gets reincarnated, he turns up at the home of his old buddy, Tony Curtis. Now he's a girl—Debbie—but with the same bag of tricks.

"Rio Conchos" is the co-feature.

SEQUOIA THEATER

This film paints a portrait of two kinds of humans: those who drink deeply of life, and those who simply sip.

Anthony Quinn is Zorba, a Greek with a great love for every minute. Alan Beates plays a young English writer going to Crete to refresh his spirit. He falls in with Zorba, who agrees to work a mine on Bates' inheritance property on the island.

MOTOR MOVIES

The slapstick spectacular "The Pink Panther," is now showing, starring Peter Sellers as a bumbling Paris detective pursuing the Phantom, an elusive jewel thief.

What he does not know is that his wife Capucine is the Phantom's accomplice.

Together they head for the Alps where the inspector expects the Gentleman Johnny to strike. Sure enough, the Phantom turns up; David Niven, who has his eye on the Pink Panther, one of the world's most fabulous jewels.

PLAYHOUSE TIBURON

Now playing here is the zany comedy "It's a Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World."

Three and one-half hours of feverish action start when a group of "ordinary" drivers find out about a fabulous treasure when they stop to investigate an accident.

101 DRIVE-IN

Now playing is the Walt Disney production, "The Three Lives of Thomasina." It offers a captivating story, some comedy, and a moral tucked away here and there.

The title character is an orange-colored tabby cat, the pet of a motherless girl. Her father is a veterinarian who really wanted to be a medical doctor and hence has little sympathy for animals. The girl's love for Thomasina teaches him an important lesson.

MAKING THE SCENE—Frank Sinatra, garbed as a Nazi SS guard, keeps a stiff upper lip as extra playing role of a Gestapo man examines machine gun in scene from "Von Ryan's Express," at the Tamalpais Theater.

Public Works Gets New Aide

James B. Robertson, 37, traffic engineer for the City of San Leandro for five and one-half years, yesterday joined the Marin County Public Works Department as traffic engineer at $914 a month.

Robertson is a graduate of University of California and has a master's degree in engineering. He fills a new position with the county.

Artist Competing In Far West Show

Fifty-five paintings and one sculpture have been selected for exhibition from 700 entries from 15 states.

Ezra Pound Gives Reading Of His Poems

SPOLETO, Italy (AP)—Poet Ezra Pound gave his first public reading in years last night, speaking in a frail voice while seated in a theater box.

Pound was part of a poetry program at composer Gian Carlo Menotti's annual festival of two worlds. Bone-thin and gray, Pound shuffled into the theater using a cane.

Pound, 79, returned to Italy in 1958 after spending 12 years in a Washington, D.C., mental institution. He had been indicted in his native United States on treason charges for broadcasting in Fascist Italy during World War II. He insisted he committed no betrayal. He was termed mentally incompetent to defend himself and was never tried.

Forty-seven per cent of the 41,000-mile network of expressways in the new Interstate Highway System is open to traffic. Work is underway on another 5,600 miles.

Youth Joins Navy Reserve

Grady Meadows, 17, of 5 Baltus Lane, San Anselmo, was sworn into the Naval Reserve Tuesday at the Naval Reserve Training Center in Santa Venetia, by his father, Capt. Weaver Meadows, USNR.

Grady will enter basic training in San Diego in August and remain on active duty in the Navy for two years.

JUDI BRAVES THE CALORIES

Building up her energy for tonight's "Miss California" contest judging in Hollywood, "Miss Marin," Judi Woodmansee (right) samples the pancakes held by "Miss Oakland," Maria Remenyi, during a luncheon for 42 contestants this week. Judi, 18, is a student at Redwood High School and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen H. Woodmansee, 110 Buena Vista Avenue, Corte Madera. She first entered the competition for a shot at the "Miss Universe" title by becoming "Miss KTIM" in March, then "Miss Marin." (UPI Telephoto)

$1,400 In Goods Taken From Home

San Rafael police today were investigating the burglary of $1,400 worth of property from the home of James A. Graddy at 4 Riviera Place, who said his home was entered through a partially open window while he and his wife were away Wednesday evening.

The burglars took a portable television set, a mink fur cape and four men's suits. A neighbor told police she saw an old model grey sedan with two male occupants cruising the Riviera cul de sac about 9:30 p.m.

A portable TV set was also stolen Wednesday night from the home of Olga Loving Willsey at 65 Freehaven Drive, San Rafael, but the culprit was short-changed. The battery to the set was in another room. A dog in the house failed to prevent the burglary.

The bar of the Loch Lomond Yacht Club at 95 Loch Lomond Drive was ransacked by someone who pried open a window in the corner of the building, but nothing was reported stolen.

Hole Is Punched In Home's Window

Horst W. Dannecker of 73 Woodland Avenue reported to San Rafael police Wednesday that a hole was punched in a windaw of his home, apparently with a screwdriver, but no entrance was made.

Free Chest X-Rays For Fair-Goers

The Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn. today coupled an announcement of three new cases of tuberculosis in the county with an invitation for Art and Garden Fair-goers to stop by the mobile X-ray unit at the association's fair booth for a free chest X-ray.

Three cases reported to the county health department during June bring the year's total of new cases to 21. All June cases were men, ages 44, 56 and 65. Two reside in San Rafael, one in San Anselmo.

Last month's cases continue a steady four-year increase of tuberculosis in Marin. Incidence of TB in Marin County increased 41.2 per cent from 1960 through 1964, the association reported.

The TB association, the Marin Medical Society and the County Health Department are cooperating in the fair project.

X-rays will be given tonight and from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

State Borrows For Disability

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Another borrow by the state disability fund has been announced by Alan Cranston, state controller.

He said the fund will be credited with $15 million from the state's general fund. This makes the disability fund $36 million in debt to the general fund and other state funds with surplus money.

The funds will be repaid, Cranston said, during the first week in August, when the Department of Employment, which administers the disability program, receives employee taxes for the second quarter of 1965.
